WEST VIRGINIA

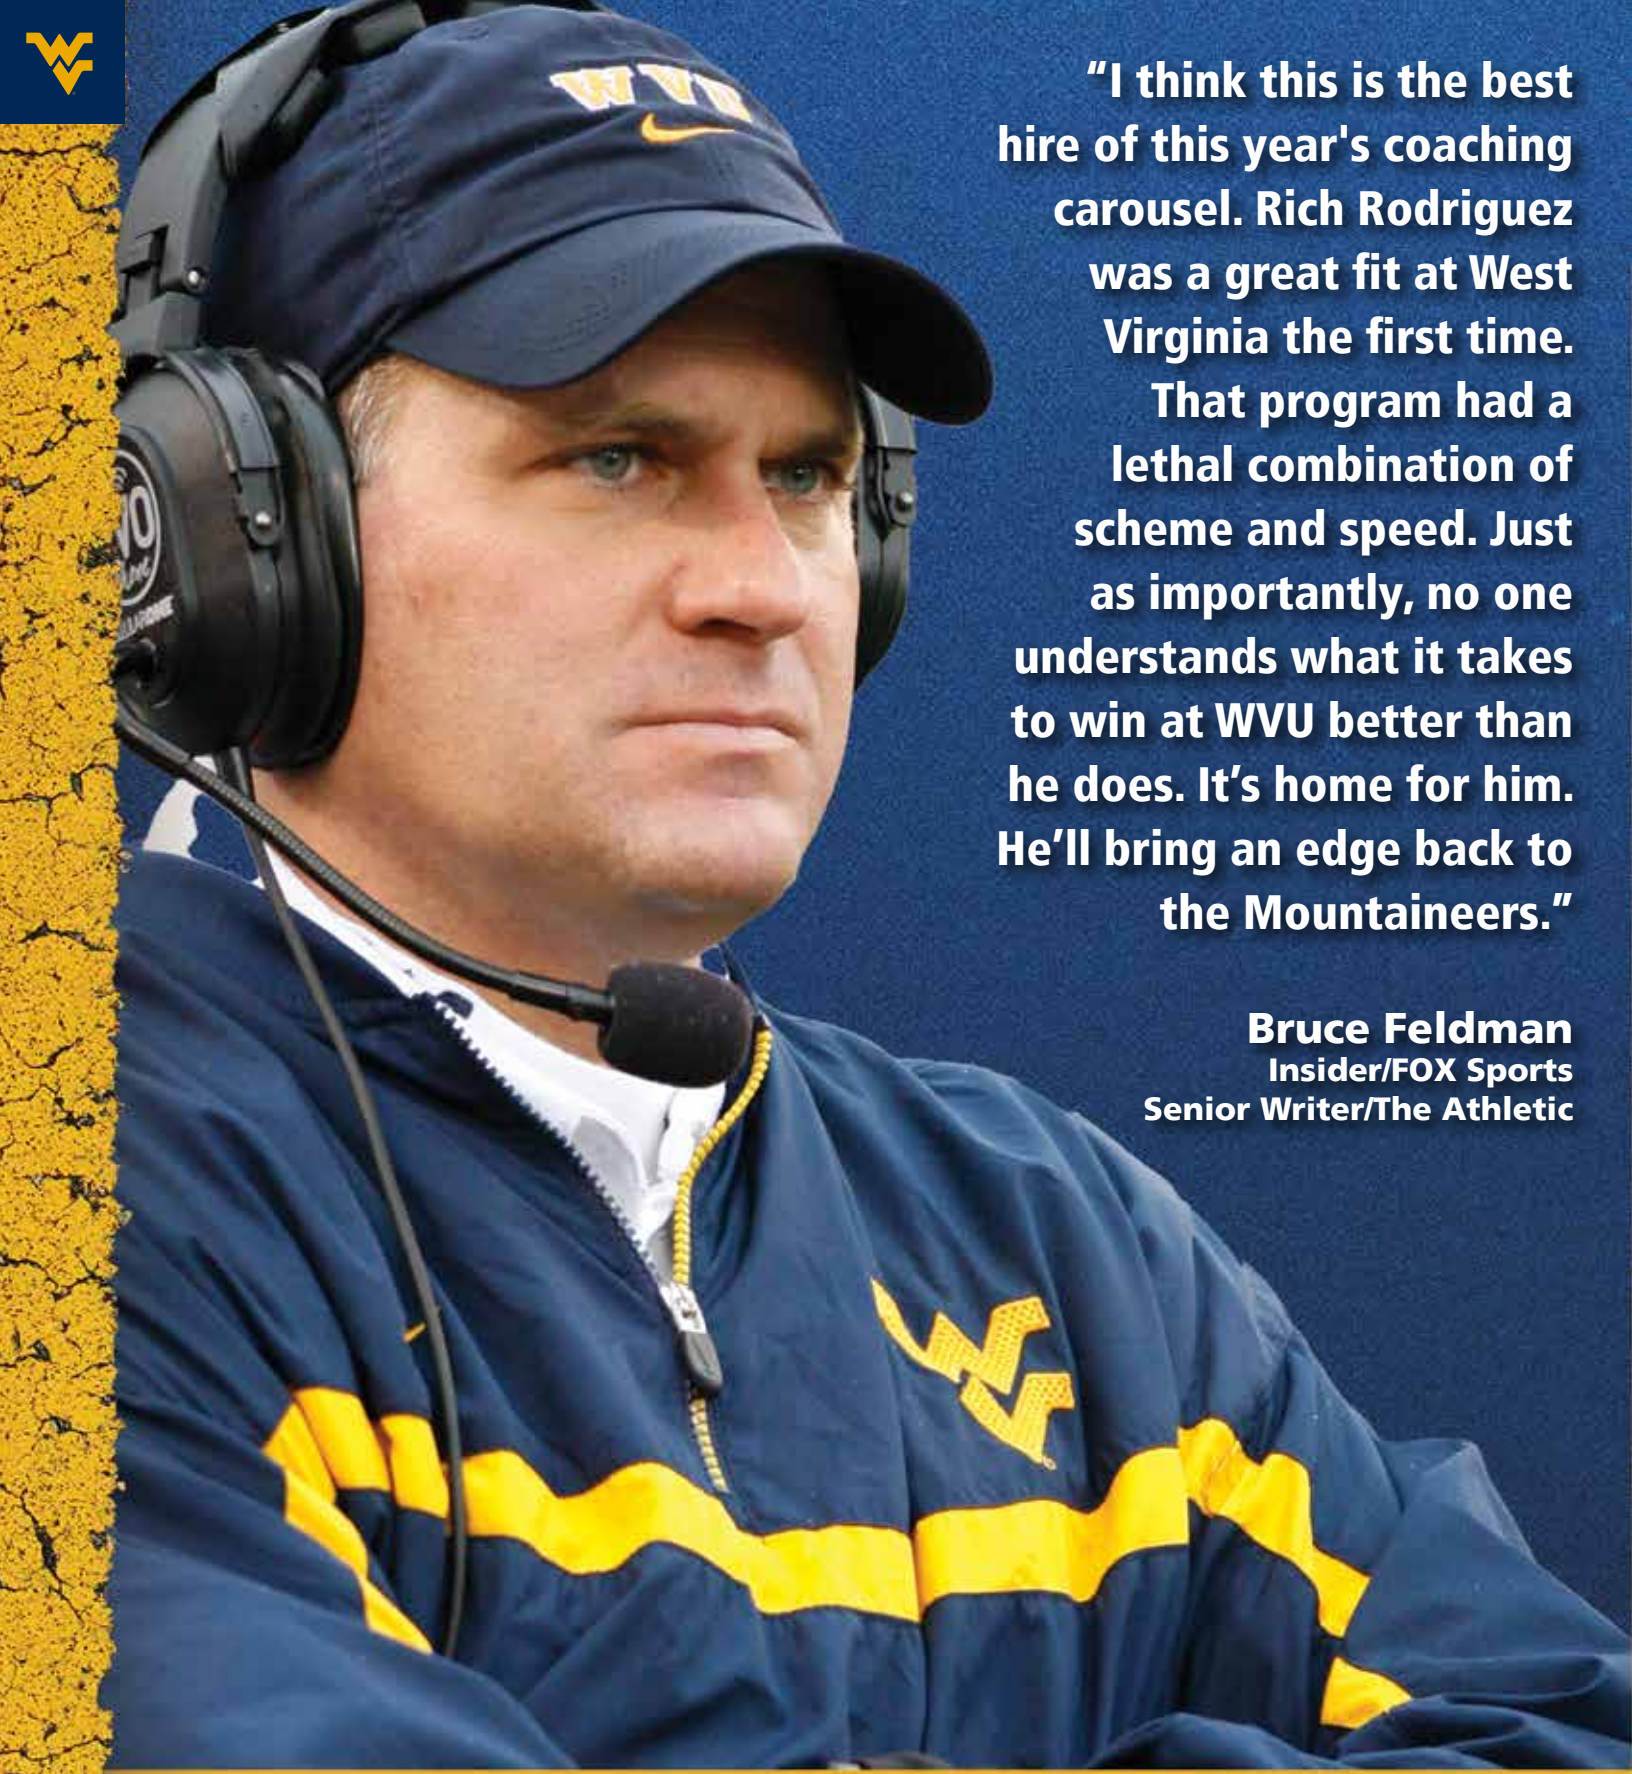
IS THE WINNINGEST

FOOTBALL PROGRAM IN THE BIG 12

WEST VIRGINIA

THE MOUNTAINEER OFFENSE IS AN UP-TEMPO ATTACK THAT DEPLOYS MULTIPLE PERSONNEL GROUPINGS TO CREATE A BLEND OF ALL-OVER-THE-LOT PASSING, A BULLDOZING RUSHING ATTACK AND SPLIT-SECOND ADJUSTMENTS TO KEEP DEFENSES OFF-BALANCE AND FANS ON THEIR FEET.

WEST VIRGINIA'S DEFENSE IS AN AGGRESSIVE, MULTIPLE-SCHEME THAT DRAWS FROM VARIOUS SYSTEMS TO METHODICALLY ATTACK AND NEUTRALIZE WHAT AN OPPONENT DOES BEST.



"I think this is the best hire of this year's coaching carousel. Rich Rodriguez was a great fit at West Virginia the first time. That program had a lethal combination of scheme and speed. Just as importantly, no one understands what it takes to win at WVU better than he does. It's home for him. He'll bring an edge back to the Mountaineers."

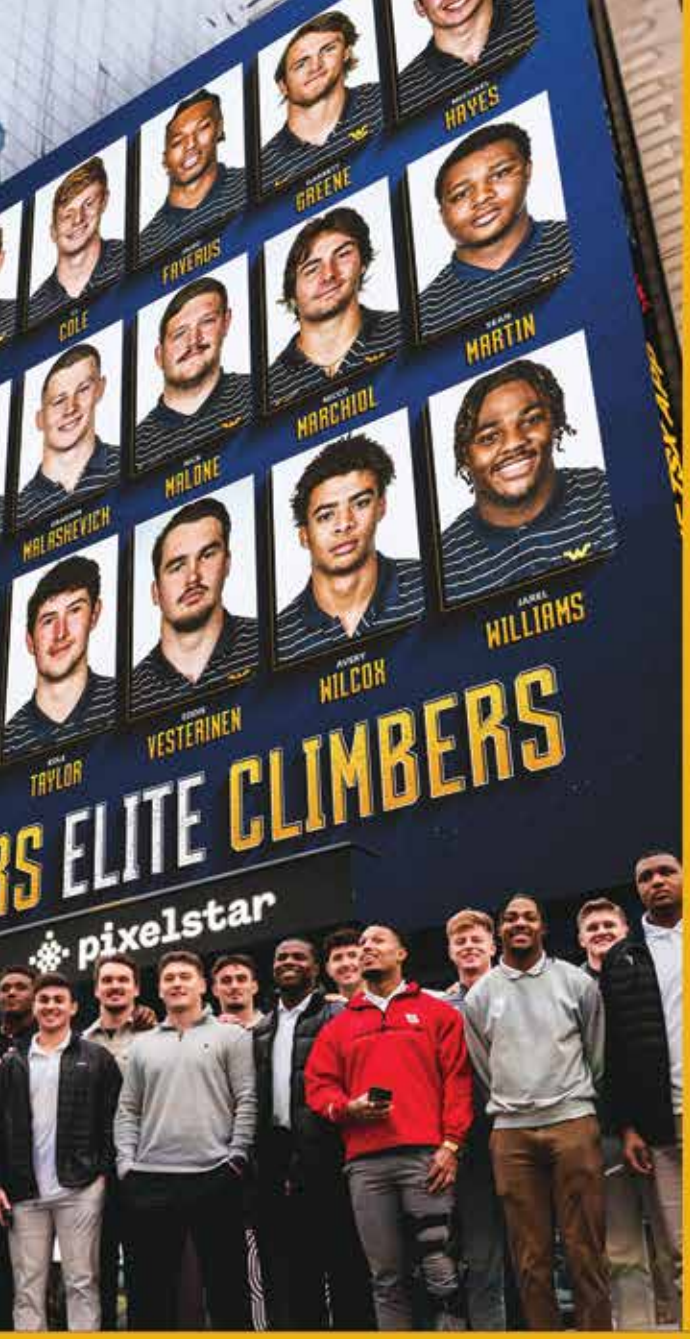
5TH QUARTER
SERVING & DEVELOPING TOTAL MOUNTAINEERS

Welcome to
NFL



John and Elaine Chambers give $1.6M gift to 5th Quarter Program

WVU Football's 5th Quarter program created a unique educational opportunity for select student-athletes thanks to a nearly $1.6 million gift from WVU alumni John and Elaine Chambers. The Chambers Elite Climbers is a supplemental two-year program that provides additional personal and professional growth opportunities to student-athletes chosen through a competitive application process. Each cohort will dive deeper into key areas of interest – entrepreneurship and innovation, technology, financial education and communications – through a variety of educational resources, complete a study-abroad experience and select a West Virginia-focused humanitarian venture to pursue each year.

Chambers Elite Climbers Travel the Globe for Educational and Networking Opportunities

The 5th Quarter program provides education and resources needed to develop Mountaineer student-athletes holistically. Better people make better Mountaineers, and through this program, WVU student-athletes are positioned for success, not only on the playing field, but also in life beyond graduation.

The Chambers Elite Climbers program provides select WVU Football student-athletes more advanced opportunities for development within the 5th Quarter program. The Climbers program is the premier, enhanced, off-the-field development program in all of college football. The career preparation, cultural field trips, humanitarian efforts and networking opportunities shape the future of the student-athletes. In addition, being able to study abroad provides an amazing lifetime experience that few college football players ever get to experience.

In the past two years, the Chambers Elite Climbers have traveled within the United States and Europe for educational, cultural and networking opportunities. In February, the Climbers visited New York City, enjoying professional networking opportunities with WVU graduates running businesses in the Big Apple, as well as other unique experiences like a Broadway show, The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the New York Stock Exchange.

Kicking off the semester with a Career Day in Pittsburgh, Climbers visited multiple businesses to get an understanding of what is expected to come throughout the program, ending at the Duquesne Club for a night of networking and dinner with WVU Alumni.

The Chambers Elite Climbers spent a week in Germany, visiting various universities, organizations and landmarks in Cologne, Düsseldorf, Munster and Munich. The Climbers spent three nights in microgroups, visiting Greece, Italy, Spain and England. The student-athletes met back up in Paris and had the opportunity to engage with program benefactors John and Elaine Chambers before attending Europe's biggest startup and tech event, Vivatech. To close the two-week study abroad, the Climbers were able to explore Paris, enjoying the Louvre Museum, the Eiffel Tower and so many other things that the host city of the 2024 Olympics had to offer.

In 2024, the Mountaineers brought back historical elements of uniforms past and transferred them to Nike's Vapor F.U.S.E uniform chassis for one of the best looks in college football. All jerseys and pants were designed so that they can be matched and worn together, giving West Virginia multiple pant/jersey/helmet combinations on game day.

One of the best and most recognized logos in all of sports, the Flying WV returned to the shoulders, and the white jersey saw the return of a gold outline on the blue numbers. Reaching deeper into Mountaineer history and tradition, stripes returned to all three colors of the pants.

New in 2025, West Virginia will return to the blue glossy helments with the gold flecks. The Mountaineers will also wear a special 1965 throwback uniform that is similar in design to the one the Mountaineers donned 60 years ago when they won the Southern Conference championship.

The real historical significance of that season is what was on the team's helmet – a distinctive three-dimensional navy blue WVU logo outlined in gold. Set behind the logo was a light-blue state of West Virginia that really gave the old-gold helmet a modern, technicolor look for the mid-1960s.

It's the first true throwback for the Mountaineers and joins special-themed uniforms such as the Coal Rush and the home and away Country Roads uniforms the Mountaineers have worn the past four seasons.

WEST VIRGINIA

CHARACTER
Public, land-grant institution, founded in 1867. Across the three campuses of the WVU System in Morgantown, Keyser, and Beckley, WVU is changing lives and helping to create a brighter future. Our purpose remains to bring education, healthcare, and prosperity to our state. WVU is one of only a few flagship, R1, land-grant, community-engaged universities in the nation.

RESEARCH CLASSIFICATION
R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Possible category, as described by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education.

ACCREDITATION

GOVERNANCE
The WVU Board of Governors is the University's governing body. The Higher Education Policy Commission in West Virginia is responsible for developing, establishing and overseeing the implementation of a public policy agenda for the state's four-year colleges and universities. Michael Benson is WVU's 27th president.

CAMPUS LOCATIONS AND FACILITIES
The WVU System is a family of distinctive campuses united by a single mission. From the groundbreaking research of our flagship in Morgantown to the student-centered focus of WVU Potomac State College in Keyser to the technology-intensive programs at WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley, we are creating a better future for West Virginia and the world.

The WVU Institute of Technology offers 30+ majors, including undergraduate engineering programs that have consistently ranked among the top in the nation according to U.S. News & World Report.

WVU Potomac State College offers 60+ majors and combines the personal attention of a small college with the affordable benefits of a major university.

The WVU System also includes Health Sciences locations in Charleston and Martinsburg; School of Nursing campuses in Morgantown, Charleston, Keyser, Bridgeport and Beckley; farms and forests throughout the state; and WVU Jackson's Mill State 4-H Camp.

The WVU Morgantown campus is in a town that was named the "No. 1 Small City in America" by BizJournals.com for its exceptional quality of life. Morgantown was also rated the ninth best college town in America by Business Insider.

STUDENT PROFILE

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
WVU recipients of prestigious scholarships include 25 Rhodes Scholars, 142 Gilman Scholars, 82 Fulbright Scholars, 53 Goldwater Scholars, 44 Critical Language Scholars, 30 Boren Scholars, 27 Truman Scholars, 6 Morris K. Udall Scholars, 5 USA Today All-USA College Academic First Team Members (and 11 academic team honorees), 3 Department of Homeland Security Scholars, 4 George C. Marshall (British) Scholars, 39 National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships, one Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholar and one Schwarzman Scholar.

R1 RESEARCH INSTITUTION HIGHLIGHTS
WVU is one of only 187 colleges and universities to attain a ranking of R1, or the highest possible research category, alongside such institutions as Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Johns Hopkins.

WVU researchers are exploring the frontier in neuroscience research at the WVU Rockefeller Neuroscience Institute, doing groundbreaking work on Alzheimer's disease and addiction treatment using focused ultrasound to safely open the blood-brain barrier (reported by "60 Minutes," the New York Times, New England Journal of Medicine, the Washington Post and more).

WVU researchers are exploring the farthest reaches of the universe: dozens helped uncover evidence of ripples in space-time. mWVU is one of two or three universities that serve as a major hub for all branches of science contributing to NANOGrav – a galaxy-sized detector that is beginning to detect the gravitational universe.

Maura McLaughlin, Eberly Distinguished Professor of Physics and Astronomy, an internationally renowned WVU astrophysicist was selected as a member of the National Academy of Sciences, one of the highest honors in the scientific world.

Duncan Lorimer, Professor of Physics and Astronomy, was selected as a Fellow of the Royal Society of London.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS
Twelve Morgantown colleges and schools offer 302 majors in agriculture and natural resources; applied and human sciences; arts and sciences; business and economics; creative arts and media; dentistry; engineering and mineral resources; law; medicine; nursing; pharmacy; and public health. Hundreds of distance education and online classes are available.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
Students can choose from more than 450 student organizations or participate in an active intramural program and a variety of club sports.

SERVICE AND LEARNING
The Center for Service and Learning develops and organizes service learning and volunteer opportunities for students and faculty. WVU is one of only 75 schools recognized by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for Community Engagement (recognized since 2010).

PARENTS CLUB
The Mountaineer Parents Club, with 20,000+ members, connects parents and families with the student experience.

ALUMNI
Chartered in 1873, the WVU Alumni Association is made up of more than 210,000+ graduates worldwide (in 135 nations).

LIBRARIES
The WVU Libraries encompass seven libraries statewide. Facilities in Morgantown include the Downtown Campus Library, Evansdale Library, Health Sciences Library, Law Library and the West Virginia and Regional History Center. Onsite collections include more than 936,000 books, 1.5+ million e-books and 700+ databases.

PRIVATE SUPPORT
The WVU Foundation recorded $282.6 million in gifts and pledges in fiscal year 2024. As of June 30, 2024, total Foundation assets stood at $3.04 billion, including long-term investments for the benefit of WVU and assets managed by the Foundation for other WVU-affiliated organizations.

EXTENSION
Throughout the year in West Virginia's 55 counties, WVU Extension funds and delivers West Virginia's 4-H program, which reaches more than 68,000 youth each year through county and state camps, special interest clubs, in-school activities and other programs.

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION TIMELINE
It's painless to apply — no required essays or recommendations, students are automatically considered for scholarships and can be admitted with or without ACT or SAT scores. Test scores may be required for certain majors or scholarships. Apply directly to WVU or use the Common Application. WVU offers a rolling admission (there is no official application deadline). Applications are processed beginning in late August for admission the following fall. March 1 is the deadline for West Virginia residents to submit Promise Scholarship applications. Visit admissions.wvu.edu to learn more, including how to submit official transcripts and test scores. Graduate admission (for degree-seeking applicants) requires a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited university with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 on a 4.0 scale for regular admission. In addition, an applicant must meet the minimum admissions criteria determined by their program of interest.

VISITORS CENTER
The WVU Visitors Center is the front door to campus, providing the warm hospitality that Mountaineers are known for in a modern, welcoming space. Tours led by current students are offered Monday through Friday and select Saturdays. Details are available at visit.wvu.edu.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH RICH RODRIGUEZ.....100
COACHING STAFF.....109
FOOTBALL STAFF.....127

Rich Rodriguez returned to West Virginia University as the 36th head football coach on Dec. 12, 2024.

The architect of the no-huddle, zone-read spread option offense started his coaching career as the youngest head coach in the nation at 24 and is currently ranked No. 4 in Power Four for most wins by an active coach.

Every stop this football CEO makes, he continues to keep building programs based on a culture of hard work and his hard-edge, earned success, hold the rope and spot the ball mentality that he instills in each student-athlete. With each year, he continues to add wins and honors and his teams play at hall of fame levels.

He has spent his entire 30-plus year career, including 27 as a head coach, showcasing an outstanding resume as a coach. Rodriguez is a master tactician, innovator, developer of talent, program builder and a winner.

Rodriguez has guided six different schools during his head coaching tenure, producing a 190-129-2 overall record and winning nearly 60% of his games. He has earned conference or national coach of the year honors seven times (WVIAC 1993, 1994; Big East 2003, 2005; Pac-12 2014; C-USA 2024 and NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1993).

He has led his squads to eight or more wins 15 times, 10 or more wins five times and has won the conference or division championship seven times (Glenville State 1993-96, West Virginia 2003-05, '07, Arizona 2014, Jacksonville State 2022, '24).

He has led his programs to 14 bowl games, including three BCS games (2006 Sugar, 2008 Fiesta, 2014 Fiesta) and two NAIA Division I playoff appearances (the championship game in 1993 and the quarterfinals in 1994). He has coached offenses that have produced 10 conference players of the year, has coached 56 NFL players and more than 30 All-Americans during his career.

Rodriguez coached arguably two of the greatest dual-threat quarterbacks in the history of college football (Pat White – West Virginia, Denard Robinson, Michigan) and several other outstanding signal-callers (Shaun King – Tulane, Woody Dantzler – Clemson, Rasheed Marshall, West Virginia and Kahlil Tate - Arizona).

He returns to West Virginia after leading Jacksonville State to outstanding success, guiding the Gamecocks from NCAA FCS level to the FBS ranks over the past three seasons. The 2024 Conference USA Coach of the Year compiled a 27-10 record (three-straight nine-win seasons), earned the 2024 C-USA regular season and conference championships, won the 2023 New Orleans Bowl and had a first-place finish in the Atlantic Sun Conference in 2022.

RICH RODRIGUEZ

In 2024, the Gamecocks boasted eight first or second team all-conference members and three all-freshman team members. The 2023 season saw the Gamecocks make history under Rodriguez, becoming the first program to win a bowl game in its first season of FBS competition. In 2022, the Gamecocks posted a 9-2 record and a 5-0 mark in ASUN Conference play en route to the conference title to wrap up its FCS Era.

Prior to Jacksonville, he served as the associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Louisiana-Monroe, where he was new head coach Terry Bowden's choice to lead the Warhawks' offense in rebuilding after ULM suffered a winless campaign in 2020. The Warhawks improved in every offensive category in 2021. He spent the 2019 season as the offensive coordinator at Ole Miss.

At Arizona, Rodriguez helped establish the Wildcats as one of the most explosive offensive programs in the Pac-12. During his tenure, Arizona tied or set more than 100 offensive school records and all-time leaders were set for career rushing and all-purpose yardage.

Rodriguez led the Wildcats to a 43-35 record and five bowl games. Arizona won the 2014 Pac-12 South Division title and advanced to the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the season with a 10-4 mark, one of just three 10-win seasons in the program's history. He was named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year at the season's end.

He compiled 33 wins in his first four years with the Wildcats, the most in school history over a four-year period. The Wildcats also defeated a top-10 team and advanced to a bowl game in each of those four seasons, the only time either of those feats have happened in school history.

Prior to Arizona, he spent three seasons at Michigan, where he coached quarterback Denard Robinson. As a sophomore in 2010, Robinson set the single-season Division I FBS record for rushing yards by a quarterback and became the first player in NCAA history to pass and rush for 1,500 yards on his way to earning first-team All-America honors.

Rodriguez was 60-26 in seven seasons at West Virginia, where he won the Big East Conference championship four times (2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007) and was named the Big East's Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2005. The Mountaineers won the 2006 Sugar Bowl and the 2008 Fiesta Bowl.

His 2007 team had a third straight 11-win season, winning the Big East Conference championship and facing Big 12 Champion Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. The Lambert Trophy winners, signifying the Eastern college supremacy, WVU was ranked the entire season and was as high as No. 1 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll heading into the final regular season game and finished the season No. 6 in both polls.

Record at West Virginia: 60-26 (Seven Seasons)
Overall Record: 190-129-2 (27 Seasons)

The offense set records for most points in the season, most touchdowns and most rushing touchdowns. Pat White finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting after winning his second straight Big East Offensive Player of the Year award and Ryan Stanchek and Pat McAfee were named to All-American teams and Scooter Berry was named to freshman All-American teams.

In 2006, West Virginia posted another 11-win campaign (the first consecutive 10-win totals in school history), beating Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl and finishing 10th in the final polls. Behind consensus All-Americans Steve Slaton and Dan Mozes (the Rimington Award winner) and Big East Player of the Year Pat White, the Rodriguez offense again ranked among the nation's most potent and dangerous.

In 2005, picked to finish third in the new Big East alignment, Rodriguez and his Mountaineers ran the table in the conference, going 7-0 to win a third consecutive Big East championship and first outright title since 1993.

WVU, with a 10-1 regular season record, was undefeated on the road despite playing a nucleus of freshmen and sophomores. The young Mountaineers were invited to play SEC champion Georgia in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, and WVU stunned the higher-ranked Bulldogs 38-35 in Atlanta's Georgia Dome for West Virginia's first-ever BCS win.

Finishing the season 11-1, West Virginia was ranked fifth and sixth in the final polls.

West Virginia returned to the Gator Bowl following the 2004 season that saw the Mountaineers tie for the Big East championship once again. WVU was ranked as high as sixth during the regular season, spending 15 straight weeks in the Top 25, finishing with an 8-4 mark.

In 2003, replacing 22 seniors (11 starters), repeating that success seemed unlikely, especially after the young WVU squad started 1-4. Entering the Big East portion of the schedule, however, Rodriguez convinced his team of the opportunity ahead, and the rest proved one of the great chapters in West Virginia football history.

After losing a remarkable game 22-20 at No. 2 Miami, West Virginia won seven straight games from that point, posting a 6-1 conference record and tying Miami for the Big East championship to earn a New Year's Day Gator Bowl berth

In 2002, just his second season at WVU, Rodriguez engineered the best turnaround in Big East history, as the Mountaineers worked together for a 9-4 record, a Big East runner-up finish, back-to-back road wins over ranked teams at Virginia Tech and Pitt and a Continental Tire Bowl berth. West Virginia finished second in the nation in rushing at 283 yards per game, and the Mountaineers, with a stable offense and an aggressive defense, were fourth nationally in turnover margin. That led to a six-game improvement in the win column, one of the three best in the nation.

Before accepting the job at West Virginia, Rodriguez was Tommy Bowden's offensive coordinator and associate head coach at Clemson in 1999 and 2000, when the Tigers went 15-9 over two seasons. He went to Clemson from Tulane, where he was Bowden's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1997 and 1998. He helped lead the Green Wave to a 19-4 mark, including a 12-0 season, Conference USA Championship and Liberty Bowl victory in 1998.

Rodriguez went to Tulane after a seven-year stint as the head coach at NAIA Glenville State in Glenville, West Virginia. His teams won or shared four consecutive West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles and he was named WVIAC Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1994, as well as the NAIA Coach of the Year after leading his team to a national runner-up finish.

His head coaching career started earlier than most in 1998, when Salem College made the 24-year-old Rodriguez the youngest head coach in college football after he'd served the previous two seasons as an assistant at the school.

But the Rodriguez roots are deepest in the Mountain State, where his career record in 15 seasons as a college head coach is 95-60-2.

Rodriguez was a three-time letterman at defensive back for the Mountaineers from 1982-84, playing in the Gator, Hall of Fame and Bluebonnet Bowls. He came to WVU as a walk-on, earned a scholarship from Coach Don Nehlen and recorded 54 career tackles and three interceptions, including a team-season-long 43-yard pick against Pacific in 1983 and a 14-yard interception in 1984's 17-14 win over Penn State, WVU's first defeat of the Nittany Lions in 29 years.

After serving two seasons as a student assistant coach and graduating from WVU in 1986 with a degree in physical education and safety, he began his coaching career at Salem College (now Salem International) as secondary coach and special teams coordinator. In 1987, he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at the school while completing a master's degree in physical education.

In 1988, he was promoted to head coach of the Salem Tigers, becoming the youngest college head coach in America at the age of 24. He was 2-8 during a trying season after an announcement that Salem would drop football at the end of the year.

Returning to WVU as a volunteer assistant coach in 1989, he worked with the outside linebackers that season, as the Mountaineers went 8-3-1 and earned a spot in the Gator Bowl.

From 1990-96, Rodriguez turned around the football fortunes at Glenville State College, where as head coach he earned four consecutive WVIAC conference championships from 1993-96, Glenville's first league titles since 1959. The Pioneers were twice a participant in the national playoffs, advancing to the 1993 NAIA national championship game.

Rodriguez' record at Glenville was 43-28-2 in seven seasons. He was named WVIAC coach of the year in 1993 and 1994 and NAIA national coach of the year in 1993; his players set five national career records for Division II. He coached three players who earned WVIAC Player of the Year honors: Jed Drenning (1992-93), Chris George (1994) and Scott Otis (1995).

Rodriguez, who received the state College Coach of the Year award for all sports from the West Virginia Sports Writers Association in 1993 (an honor he repeated in 2003 and 2005 at WVU) also served as Glenville's athletic director in 1995-96. He was inducted into the Glenville Sports Hall of Fame in October, 2003.

A native of Grant Town, West Virginia, in Marion County, Rodriguez is a 1981 graduate of North Marion High School, where he was a four-sport letterman and an all-state honoree in football and basketball, leading Coach Roy Michael's Huskies to the 1980 Class AAA state football championship Following the 2002 season, Rodriguez was named Big East coach of the year by The Sporting News and state college coach of the year for all sports by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association.

He received the 2003 Frank Loria Award for coaching distinction from the West Virginia chapter of the National Football Foundation. In 2003, he was the unanimous choice of his peers for Big East Coach of the Year, and the District I coach of the year for the American Football Coaches Association, one of five district AFCA winners, and for his efforts in guiding the Mountaineers to an 11-1 mark in 2005, he was once again awarded league coach of the year honors from his peers. He began a term in 2005 on the AFCA Board of Directors.

RAQUEL, RICH, RITA AND RHETT

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT RICH RODRIGUEZ

"So excited to see Rich Rod back at his Alma Mater! I know he regrets ever leaving and sounds more motivated than ever to bring the Mountaineers back to National prominence! Can't wait to see WVU in 2025 and beyond with Rich Rod back!"
Kirk Herbstreit - Lead Analyst, ESPN College GameDay

"There's an inherently powerful connection to home, especially at a proud program like West Virginia. Rich Rodriguez's return to Morgantown brings connective tissue to the program's most successful moments of this generation and percolates with the promise of recreating them for the next."
Pete Thamel - ESPN.com

"The always-passionate West Virginia fans don't have to wonder if Rich Rod can get the Mountaineers back in the national championship discussion. They have already seen him do it at his alma mater. He has had quite a journey since then and returns to a college football landscape that is radically different from the one he left 17 years ago. West Virginia will compete for a Big 12 championship and the playoffs and it will be sooner rather than later. Rich Rod may be a little older since his previous tour of duty in Morgantown. But he's a lot wiser."
Tony Barnhart - TMG College Sports (Athlon)

"I have always strongly believed that the most important part about choosing a coach is finding the right fit. Both for the coach and the program! It is obvious that Coach is a perfect fit for West Virginia, and I am confident the Mountaineers will return to a place of prominence within the Big 12 and all of College Football in short order."
Joel Klatt - FOX Football Analyst

"Fit matters in college football, and nobody fits better at West Virginia than Rich Rodriguez. It's awesome that his career has come full circle with a coming-home moment in Morgantown — where you know he will build a competitor in the Big 12. We still talk about Pat White, Steve Slaton and the high-powered offenses from Rodriguez's first stint with the Mountaineers. Who will the next stars be? We can't wait to find out."
Bill Bender - The Sporting News

"West Virginia's decision to bring back Rich Rodriguez may go down as the best one of the coaching cycle. It's a great fit overall — as evidenced by all of his success the first go-around — but I also particularly love the way RichRod's staffing and schemes have both evolved to fit college football today. "
Nicole Auerbach - NBCSports

"West Virginia going back to the future with Rich Rodriguez is more than just a nostalgic reunion — it's a great move for the Mountaineers going forward as well. Rodriguez has won everywhere he's ever been, adapting to the changing ways the sport is played and college athletics has evolved. He gets West Virginia like no one else could, and West Virginia gets him. A lot of sequels aren't as good as the original, but RichRod 2.0 has a chance to be a smash hit."
Pat Forde - Sports Illustrated

"It might not have been a country road that took Rich Rodriguez home to West Virginia, but it's definitely the place he belongs. Rich Rod's return is going to up the excitement again at Puskar Stadium, not to mention the anxiety around the Big 12."
Eric Olson - Associated Press

"I think this is the best hire of this year's coaching carousel. Rich Rodriguez was a great fit at West Virginia the first time. That program had a lethal combination of scheme and speed. Just as importantly, no one understands what it takes to win at WVU better than he does. It's home for him. He'll bring an edge back to the Mountaineers, and he takes over at an ideal time with the Big 12 more up for grabs than it's ever been given we just saw the team predicted to finish last in the league win the conference."
Bruce Feldman - The Athletic

"Every memory someone from my generation has about West Virginia Football includes Rich Rodriguez. He redefined the program. I can't wait to see where version 2.0 takes us."
Josh Pate - Josh Pate's College Football Show

"Rich Rod is one of the OGs of modern offensive football. You see his influence each Saturday around the country. West Virginia is lucky to have him back. The program enjoyed some of its greatest successes when he led the Mountaineers to national prominence. More than that he was the face of the program. I fondly remember my time visiting the campus and program and seeing the inner workings of a then national powerhouse. Mountaineers everywhere can look forward to more of the same."
Dennis Dodd - CBSSports.com

"Rich Rodriguez has been an offensive innovator and proven winner over the course of his career - and there is no better example than his first stint at West Virginia. He assembled a truly legendary roster of players and maximized their potential in ways only he could do. I'm looking forward to his return to the Mountaineers in this new era of college football, eager to see whether he can revolutionize the game once again."
Andrea Adelson - ESPN.com

"If anyone can recapture the magic of Morgantown, it's Rich Rodriguez. He's as proven as they come. I would not bet against him returning West Virginia to prominence."
Kirk Bohls - Houston Chronicle

"Richard Rodriguez has won everywhere he's been, with the exception of Michigan, which says more about the Wolverines than it does RichRod. And his return to Morgantown is a cool completion of his career. Rodriguez's greatest days were coaching West Virginia a generation ago, and now, at 61, he's still young enough to have a second great act with the Mountaineers."
Berry Tramel - Tulsa World

"There are very few game-changers in college football today, but Rich Rodriguez is one of them. Rich Rod brought the spread to the forefront with Pat White, Steve Slaton and Noel Devine and transformed the sport offensively in an exciting way few could have imagined. There's a reason why people still talk about those West Virginia teams nearly 20 years later, and it's because of Rich Rodriguez."
Scott Dochterman - The Athletic

"The offense that everyone runs in college football, that even the NFL uses. That's all Rich Rodriguez. It's his baby, his trademark, and it never looked better when Pat White was running it. You better believe it can happen again. The game is about stressing defenses, and nobody does that quite like Rich."
Matt Hayes - Senior National College Football Writer, USA Today Sports Network

"RichRod's return is one of the biggest stories of the offseason and a real shot of adrenaline into the Mountaineer program. He's not just a proven winner everywhere he's been, but Rodriguez has shown he's been able to adapt well to the changing environment of college football while still producing a winner. It wouldn't surprise at all if he's quickly able to get WVU into the running for a CFP bid sooner than later in a wide-open Big. 12."
Bryan Fischer - Sports Illustrated

"It's hard to go home again, but this reunion feels right. RichRod's style, a blend of creative and hard-edged, is the embodiment of West Virginia football."
Ralph Russo - The Athletic

"There is no better fit in the country for RichRod than West Virginia. His ability to recruit, motivate and place players in the best position to win is unmatched. I've never been around a person who hates losing more than Rich."
Ross Dellenger - Yahoo! Sports

"I'm happy that Rich is back, and I think he'll do a great job there. Him, being a West Virginia person, grew up about six or seven miles from where I grew up. I'm glad that he came back, and he had great success there in the past. We're just excited for him."
Nick Saban - ESPN GameDay Analyst

ZAC ALLEY

Assistant Head Coach/ Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers @CoachZAlley

Zac Alley joined the Mountaineer Football Staff in December 2024 as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

He rejoins WVU coach Rich Rodriguez after serving as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Oklahoma this past season. He coached under Rodriguez at Jacksonville State in 2022-23 and at Louisiana-Monroe in 2021.

At Oklahoma in 2024, Alley helped lead the Sooners' defense to a No. 3 ranking in defensive touchdowns, No. 5 in fumbles recovered, No. 10 in team tackles for loss, No. 11 in first-down defense, No. 19 in total defense, No. 23 in rushing defense, No. 25 in sacks and No. 30 in scoring defense.

One of Alley's standouts, linebacker Danny Stutsman, earned NCAA Consensus All-American honors after leading the Sooners with 110 tackles, including a team-high 44 solo stops, for an average of 9.2 tackles per game with eight tackles for loss.

Alley coordinated a 2023 Jacksonville State defensive unit that ranked 33rd out of 133 teams in scoring defense (21.2 ppg) and 43rd in total defense (352.8 ypg), and helped the Gamecocks to a 9-4 record, a 6-2 Conference USA mark (third place) and New Orleans Bowl win over Louisiana.

Jax State also ranked fourth in the country in 2023 in opponent yards per rush (2.8), eighth in tackles for loss yardage (414), ninth in turnovers gained (25), 10th in interceptions (16), 12th in opponent yards per play (4.8), 13th in sacks per game (2.9) and15th in rushing defense (111.5 ypg).

In his first year at Jacksonville State in 2022, Alley presided over a stingy defense that helped the Gamecocks amass a 9-2 record and a 5-0 league mark en route to the Atlantic Sun Conference championship.

Alley was the youngest defensive coordinator in the NCAA's Football Bowl Subdivision when he took over at ULM in spring of 2021 at the age of 27. A member of 247Sports' "30 Under 30" list, Alley joined the Warhawks after a 0-10 season in 2020 and helped lead them to four victories. Under his direction, the Warhawks improved in virtually every defensive statistical category from the previous season, including going from No. 125 in rushing defense before his arrival to No. 69.

Prior to ULM, he served as Boise State's co-special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2019-20. He helped the Broncos to a 17-4 record in those two seasons, which included a 13-game win streak in Mountain West Conference play. In 2020, FootballScoop.com named Alley one of its special teams coordinators of the year.

He also served a defensive coaching internship with the NFL's Carolina Panthers in the spring of 2017, assisting the linebackers coach.

Alley served four years (2015-18) as a graduate assistant at Clemson. In those four seasons, with Alley working primarily with the defensive tackles and linebackers, Clemson posted a 55-4 (.932) record and won four Atlantic Coast Conference titles and two national championships (2016 and 2018).

He started working as a student assistant at Clemson as a freshman in 2011 and spent four years in that role. He earned his bachelor's degree in business management in 2014 and his master's degree in human resource development in 2017.

TRAVIS TRICKETT

Senior Offensive Assistant
@CoachTTrickett

Travis Trickett returned to WVU in January 2025 as the senior offensive assistant on the Mountaineer coaching staff.

He spent time on the Mountaineer football staff from 2019-21 as tight ends and inside receivers coach before becoming the offensive coordinator at USF. He spent the last two seasons at Coastal Carolina as offensive coordinator.

He helped the Chanticleers to an 8-5 record and a bowl win in 2023. Coastal ranked 19th in the nation in completion percentage and 23rd in team passing efficiency.

Trickett went to Coastal after serving one season at South Florida as the Bulls' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2022. In his lone season, he oversaw improvement in the Bulls' offensive production despite guiding an offense that had a first-year primary ball carrier, three different starting quarterbacks and 14 members of the two-deep miss all or parts of the season.

Trickett orchestrated major improvements at USF in total offense, rushing offense, scoring offense, third-down conversions, red-zone conversions, pass efficiency and passing touchdowns.

During his three years at West Virginia, the Mountaineer offense improved each year, and he mentored Winston Wright at receiver and Mike O'Laughlin at tight end. In 2020, the Mountaineers had one of the most improved offenses in the nation in terms of total yards, showing gains of more than 60 yards rushing per game, 30 yards passing, more than 90 yards of total offense and seven more points per game in a 6-4 season that finished with a win in the Liberty Bowl.

Prior to West Virginia, Trickett was the offensive coordinator at Georgia State (2017-18), where he helped the Panthers finish with a school-record seven wins and their first winning season at the FBS level. In 2016 as Florida Atlantic's offensive coordinator, his unit set FAU season records for rushing yards, yards per carry and rushing touchdowns. He worked at Samford from 2011-15 and coached three different positions, became the offensive coordinator and helped the Bulldogs to five straight winning seasons, a Southern Conference championship and NCAA FCS playoff berth in 2013.

Trickett started his coaching career as a student assistant at West Virginia from 2003-06 before spending a year as a graduate assistant at Alabama and two years as graduate assistant at Florida State, working on the coaching staffs of Bobby Bowden, Jimbo Fisher, Nick Saban and Rich Rodriquez in his young career.

A native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Trickett earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing from West Virginia in 2007 and his master's degree from Florida State in sports administration in 2009.

Trickett, and his wife, Tiffany, also a WVU graduate with a bachelor's degree in nursing, have three children, Maverick, Camilla and Holden.

JACK BICKNELL JR.

Offensive Line
@CoachBicknell

Jack Bicknell Jr. joined the Mountaineer football coaching staff as the offensive line coach in January 2025.

He rejoins Rodriguez as a member of his staff after the two worked together at Ole Miss in 2019. Bicknell has more than 35 years experience coaching offensive lines at the collegiate and NFL levels and comes to WVU after serving as the offensive line coach at Wisconsin in 2023.

Prior to his time at Wisconsin, he oversaw the North Carolina offensive line in 2022, helping lead the Tar Heels to a 9-4 mark in the regular season, a spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship game and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl.

Bicknell spent the 2021 season at Louisville, leading an offensive line that helped the Cardinals rank No. 22 nationally and No. 3 in the ACC in rushing and No. 21 nationally in total offense. Louisville ranked first in the ACC in fewest sacks and tackles for loss allowed.

Prior to Louisville, he coached the offensive lines at Auburn and Ole Miss. He helped guide the Tigers to the Citrus Bowl and spent three years rebuilding the Rebels' offense.

In 2019 under Rodriguez as offensive coordinator, the Rebels were one of the top rushing teams in the nation, finishing second in the SEC and ninth in the country.

In 2017 and '18, Bicknell's offensive line helped Ole Miss quarterbacks lead the SEC in passing yards per game.

Prior to joining Ole Miss, Bicknell spent two seasons as assistant offensive line coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Bicknell came to Miami after spending the 2013 season as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. While in Pittsburgh, Bicknell's unit helped running back Le'Veon Bell amass 1,259 yards from scrimmage, the most by a Steelers rookie.

Before joining the Steelers, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012, when he directed a unit that was instrumental in helping running back Jamaal Charles return to All-Pro form after an ACL injury cut short his 2011 season.

Bicknell began his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants in 2009 and was a member of a coaching staff that helped lead the franchise to its fourth Super Bowl title with a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots.

Before his time in the NFL, Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (1999-2006), where his 43 victories werer the fourth-most in school history. In 2001, he was named WAC Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a conference championship in their first year of membership. Bicknell also served as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach from 1997-98.

Bicknell began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boston College, as a graduate assistant from 1985-86.

Following his two seasons with the Eagles, Bicknell joined the staff at New Hampshire in 1987 and spent 10 seasons there, coaching the defensive line (1987-92) before moving to the offensive line (1993-96). He returned to BC in 2007 as the Eagles' assistant head coach/offensive line coach for two seasons (2007-08) before joining the Giants in the NFL.

A three-year letterwinner as an offensive lineman, Bicknell played collegiately for his father, Jack, at Boston College from 1981-85 where he was the center for 1984 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Doug Flutie.

Bicknell comes from a family of coaches. His father was the head coach at Boston College (1981-90) prior to becoming the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons (1991-03) of NFL Europe. His brother, Bob, has coached in NFL Europe, at the collegiate level and in the NFL.

Born in North Plainfield, New Jersey, Bicknell attended Orono (Maine) High School. He and his wife, Helen, have three children; John, Katelyn and Alyse, and five grandchildren, Jay, Asher, Noelle, Haven and Ben.

During his tenure at WVU, the Mountaineers experienced one of their greatest periods of success, including winning three BCS bowl games - 2006 Sugar Bowl, 2008 Fiesta Bowl and the 2012 Orange Bowl.

Casteel returned to West Virginia in 2020 after serving as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada for three years. In 2019, the Wolfpack finished 7-6 and earned a spot in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. In 2018, five of his starters earned All-Mountain West honors. From his first year to his second year, the Nevada defense improved from allowing 208.2 yards per game rushing to 142 and dropped the total defense from allowing 471.3 yards to 378.3 yards per game. Four of his players earned All-Mountain West Conference honors.

At Arizona, Casteel helped lead the Wildcats to the 2014 Pac-12 South championship and four bowl appearances, including the 2014 Fiesta Bowl. The defense aided in setting a school record for most wins over a four-year period.

While at WVU, the defense helped the WVU football program win six Big East Conference championships and produced four All-Americans, three Academic All-Americans, nine all-conference honorees and 23 professional players. The Mountaineers finished No. 3 in the nation in total defense in 2010, No. 7 in 2007 and No. 15 in 2005.

He also spent time at UTEP as the defensive ends coach (2000) and at Shepherd University, first as the defensive line and strength coach from 1988-90 and as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-2000.

Casteel earned his bachelor's (1984) and master's degrees (1986) from California University of Pennsylvania. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1984-86, before becoming the defensive coordinator at Palmetto High School in Miami, Florida, and was a training camp assistant with the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League in 1989.

Casteel, and his wife, Rosemary, have two children, Jake, who will join his father on the Mountaineer coaching staff as a defensive analyst, and Sarah, a West Virginia graduate.

PAT KIRKLAND

Special Teams Coordinator/ Defensive Assistant @coachpkirkland

Pat Kirkland is in his first year as the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant coach on the WVU football coaching staff, marking the third time that Kirkland has worked with Rodriguez, having served on his staff at WVU in 2007 and at Jacksonville State from 2022-2024. Kirkland was the special teams' coordinator and linebackers coach under Rodriguez at Jacksonville State for three years.

In 2024, his special teams ranked No. 2 in Conference USA in kickoff return and kick return defense, net punting, punt returns and punt return defense. The kick return defense ranked No. 22 nationally and punter Jack Dawson was No. 17 nationally.

During the 2023 season, the Gamecocks averaged 62.1 yards per kickoff with 39 touchbacks. On defense, Jax State led Conference USA in sacks largely due to his Bandits group racking up 39 sacks in 13 games, resulting in 291 lost yards.

Kirkland's move to Jacksonville State translated into immediate success, helping the Gamecocks to a 9-2 record, including a 5-0 conference record and the 2022 ASUN Conference Championship.

His bandits room was led by J-Rock Swain, who earned All-ASUN First Team honors and helped the Gamecocks lead the country in fumbles recovered and to the 12th-best red zone defense in the nation.

His special teams units were also difference makers for Jax State in 2022, ranking fourth nationally in net punting, 10th in kickoff returns and seventh in blocked punts. Alen Karajic broke school records for scoring in a game by a kicker and for consecutive field goals made during the year, as well.

Kirkland's resume includes 10 years of head coaching experience at the University of Charleston in Charleston, West Virginia, where he led the Golden Eagles to a 70-41 record and runner-up finish in the Mountain East Conference six times, including his 2021 team that finished 8-2.

At Charleston, he coached 42 all-conference first team players, as well as numerous all-region and All-America selections. He had players earn Mountain East Conference Player of the Year honors on offense and defense, with his latest being running back Tyreik McAllister, the MEC's Offensive Player of the Year in 2021.

His 2015 team at Charleston finished 10-1 ranked No. 15 in the nation after earning a spot in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. That team was also second nationally in total defense leading to Kirkland earning the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year Award at season's end.

During the last four years at UC, Kirkland had nine players in NFL camps and two who were drafted, along with Reese's Senior Bowl participant defensive lineman John Cominsky, who is currently a defensive end for the Detroit Lions

Kirkland spent five seasons at WVU, spending time on both sides of the ball, with the majority coming on defense. He helped lead the Mountaineers to a win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl as the defensive secondary coach and led WVU to the Gator Bowl as the fullbacks and tight ends coach. He also spent time as WVU's director of recruiting.

Before his time at WVU, Kirkland was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Glenville State, where his defense was consistently one of the best in the nation.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Kirkland also spent two years as the secondary coach at Muskingum, where he had four all-conference players in the secondary.

He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Muskingum, where he was a first-team all-conference defensive back after leading the league in interceptions. management in 2014 and his master's degree in human resource development in 2017.

LOGAN BRADLEY

Inside Receivers
@CoachBradleyWVU

Logan Bradley joined the WVU coaching staff as the inside receivers coach in March 2025.

Bradley arrives from Auburn, where he was the assistant tight ends coach (2025) and was an offensive analyst for the two years prior to that (2023-24). He managed the organization of practice scripts and game day call sheets for the head coach and created the offensive playbook using Visio electronic software. He was responsible for setting up and managing drills, handled opponent film breakdown and assisted in recruiting for the offense.

Before Auburn, Bradley served as an offensive analyst (2021-22) and an offensive graduate assistant at Liberty (2019-20) and was a recruiting analyst at Ole Miss (2018-19). He volunteered with the Miami Dolphins (2018) and was a wide receiver student assistant (2014-17) and a defensive secondary student assistant (2017-18) at Ole Miss.

During his career, Bradley was part of coaching staffs that participated in seven postseason bowl games.

A native of Cedar Hill, Texas, Bradley earned his bachelor's degree in general studies with concentrations in sports recreation, education and history from Ole Miss in 2018 and his master's degree in sport administration from Liberty in 2021.

He and his wife, Olivia, have three children: Sawyer, Rhodes and Brooks

GABE FRANKLIN

Safeties
@CoachGF628

Gabe Franklin is in his first year as the safeties coach on the Mountaineer coaching staff.

A four-year letterwinner and three-time all-league cornerback at Boise State, Franklin had a successful tenure at his alma mater where he served as the safeties coach in 2016 and oversaw the nickels starting in 2019. He was with the Broncos for five seasons and helped the defense improve immediately. In his debut season, the Bronco defense allowed just 23.3 points per game, a mark that ranked No. 29 nationally. That number dropped to 22.9 points allowed per game in 2017 and 22.1 points per game in 2018. During his time at Boise, four safeties earned All-Mountain West honors.

Prior to coming to West Virginia, Franklin served in various roles around the Mansfield, Texas, community, including founding F4 Sports Academy and teaching high school business while coaching football and soccer at Timberview High.

He also spent five seasons at UTEP, where he served as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator. He joined the UTEP staff as cornerbacks coach in 2011 before being elevated to defensive backs coach in 2013 and recruiting coordinator in 2014. In his final two seasons there, the Miners' secondary combined for 72 pass breakups.

Franklin began his coaching career at Bishop O'Dowd High School, his prep alma mater, in Oakland, California, in 2007. The following season, he joined the staff at California as an administrative assistant on the defensive side, a role in which he served for two seasons before a one-year stint as the cornerbacks coach at San Diego in 2010.

Franklin finished his career in Boise as the NCAA's all-time leader in passes defended (72) and tied for fourth in Western Athletic Conference history with 18 interceptions, just two behind the all-time leaders. His 18 picks also rank tied for fourth in Boise State history.

He was a three-time All-WAC selection, being named to the conference's second team from 2002-03 before cracking the first team in 2004 after four interceptions, 17 pass breakups and 61 tackles. During his career, Boise State went 44-7, won three conference titles and a pair of bowl games.

Following his collegiate career, Franklin signed as an undrafted free agent with the NFL's San Diego Chargers in 2005. He also had stints with the New York Giants and San Francisco 49ers, and played for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2007.

Franklin graduated with his bachelor's degree in psychology from Boise State in 2004 and earned his master's degree in business administration from North Texas in 2023.

He and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Addison and Emery, and two sons, Aiden and Evan.

RYAN GARRETT

Wide Receivers
@CoachRGarrett

Ryan Garrett is in his first year as the wide receivers coach on the Mountaineer coaching staff.

Garrett joins WVU coach Rich Rodriguez's staff for the third time. He first became a member of his staff as a graduate assistant coach at Louisiana-Monroe in 2021, before serving as the wide receivers coach at Jacksonville State in 2022.

In 2024, he helped lead the Gamecocks to a 9-5 record, the Conference USA championship and a spot in a second straight bowl game. The JSU offense finished No. 4 in FBS in rushing, No. 6 in first-down offense, No. 8 in passing yards per completion, No. 11 in scoring offense and No. 21 in total offense.

Garrett's top receiver, Cam Vaughn, finished with 49 catches for 804 yards and five touchdowns, ranking No. 3 in CUSA in yards per reception, No. 6 in receiving yards, No. 8 in touchdown receptions and No. 9 in catches.

The Gamecocks made history during the 2023 season, posting a 9-4 record during their first season at the FBS level and winning the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Perry Carter earned All-Conference USA Honorable Mention honors after leading the Gamecocks in receiving.

Carter averaged 17.74 yards per catch during the regular season, which was third in CUSA. He finished the year with 672 receiving yards and four touchdowns.

In Garrett's first season at Jax State in 2022, he helped guide the Gamecocks to a 9-2 record that included a 5-0 mark in conference play and the 2022 ASUN Conference title. The Gamecocks had one of the most efficient offenses in the nation, ranking No. 5 nationally in yards per reception and No. 10 in scoring offense. Fourteen different Gamecocks caught at least one pass in 2022, while nine of those found the end zone at least once.

In 2021, he helped the Warhawks head coach and former Mountaineer Terry Bowden lay the foundation for a turnaround of their program after they inherited a team that had gone winless the season before.

Garrett spent the 2020 season as the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach at West Virginia State under coach John Pennington, a former receiver for Rodriguez at WVU.

He started his coaching career at Ole Miss, where he began as a student assistant and eventually served as an offensive graduate assistant working with the Rebels' quarterbacks under Rodriguez in 2019. That season, the Rebels ranked third in total offense in the SEC, averaging 445.3 yards per game, behind only Alabama and LSU.

Garrett graduated from North Henderson High School (Hendersonville, N.C.) where he was captain of the football team and was named all-conference as a wide receiver. He played at Emory & Henry College (Virginia) for a year before transferring to Ole Miss and entering the coaching profession.

WILLIAM GREEN

Defensive Line

William Green is in his first year as the defensive line coach on the Mountaineer football coaching staff.

Green rejoins Rodriguez and defensive coordinator Zac Alley after spending time on their staffs at Jacksonville State and Louisiana Monroe.

In 2024, he helped lead Jax State to a 9-5 record, the Conference USA championship and a spot in a second straight bowl game. The defense finished No. 5 nationally in fumbles recovered, No. 10 in red zone defense, No. 15 in turnovers gained and No. 22 in turnover margin. The Gamecocks were No. 2 in Conference USA in tackles for loss, No. 3 in sacks and No. 4 in rushing defense. Defensive end J-Rock Swain was named All-Conference USA second-team.

Three defensive linemen made the All-Conference USA lists in 2023 as the Gamecocks led the league in sacks with 39 during a 9-4 season, which saw the program win its first FBS Bowl Game in its initial year of FBS play.

The Gamecocks posted a 9-2 record in 2022 that included a 5-0 record in ASUN play and a conference championship. His defensive line played a huge role in the nation's No. 12 red-zone defense, as well as a unit that led the nation with 15 fumble recoveries.

Green helped Alley guide the ULM defense in 2020, when his defensive line set the tone for a rushing defense that improved 56 spots in the FBS national rankings the year before.

Prior to going to ULM, Green turned in his first stint at Jax State and coached the Gamecocks' defensive line and was also the run game coordinator. In four seasons, JSU went 28-13 (.683), including an 18-6 record (.750) in Ohio Valley Conference games, won back-to-back league titles in 2017-18 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision those same two seasons. Prior to being hired as JSU's defensive line coach in 2017, Green was a graduate assistant for his alma mater, Florida, in 2016 after serving as a graduate assistant with the Gamecocks in 2014 and 2015.

Green played for the Gators from 2008-11, seeing action in 53 games. He recorded 53 tackles, 11 for loss, 2½ sacks and a career-best 21 tackles in his senior season. He was a member of Florida's national championship team as a freshman in 2008.

Green prepped at Spain Park High School in Hoover, where he was an All-American linebacker and defensive end for John Grass and the Jaguars in 2007.

Green was also an all-state first-team selection and named to the Alabama Sports Writers Association's Super 12 Team in a senior season that saw him register 114 tackles, four sacks and a fumble recovery in SPHS's AHSAA Class 6A runner-up season before signing with Florida.

Following his playing days at Florida, Green went to training camp with the Cleveland Browns and then played in the Arena Football League.

MICHAEL NYSEWANDER

Tight Ends
@NYSEandeasy

Michael Nysewander joined the Mountaineer football coaching staff in January 2025 as the tight ends coach. Nysewander rejoins Rodriguez after serving as his inside receivers/tight ends coach for the past two years at Jacksonville State.

In 2024, he helped lead the Gamecocks to a 9-5 record, the Conference USA championship and a spot in a second straight bowl game. The JSU offense finished No. 4 in FBS in rushing, No. 6 in first-down offense, No. 8 in passing yards per completion, No. 11 in scoring offense and No. 21 in total offense.

Jax State made history during the 2023 season, posting a 9-4 record during their first season at the FBS level and winning the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Tight end Sean Brown was a big part of that success, earning All-Conference USA Second Team honors, finishing with 19 receptions, with five going for touchdowns.

He joined the Gamecocks after spending three seasons at Ole Miss, where he served as head coach Lane Kiffin's senior analyst.

During those three seasons, the Rebels went to three bowl games, including the Sugar Bowl and had a 10-win campaign in 2021.

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Nysewander graduated from Alabama in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in communication studies. While with the Crimson Tide, he was an H-back/tight end and helped head coach Nick Saban's program to three national championships and SEC championships. Kiffin was his offensive coordinator at Alabama from 2014-16.

Following his college playing career, he signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as a rookie free agent. He started his coaching career as a member of the offensive and special teams' staff for Kiffin at FAU in 2017 for two years before becoming the assistant director of player development. He then was the running backs coach at Samford before rejoining Kiffin at Ole Miss.

LARRY PORTER

Running Backs
@coachlporter

Larry Porter is in his first year as the running backs coach on the Mountaineer football coaching staff.

Porter, a 27-year coaching veteran, comes to West Virginia after serving as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at North Carolina for the past four years. He is a two-time national recruiter of the year, a three-time Broyles Award nominee, has developed numerous NFL running backs and special teams prospects and has been part of 21 bowl teams since 2002.

During the 2024 season, the Tar Heels were led by two-time All-American and two-time Doak Walker Award finalist and eventual first-round draft pick Omarion Hampton.

During his first season back at Carolina in 2021, Porter's running back unit led the ACC in rushing.

Porter also had stints at Auburn from 2017-20 (special teams coordinator/tight ends/H-backs), special teams coordinator and running backs coach at UNC (2014-16), running backs coach at Texas (2013), Arizona State (2012), LSU (2005-09), Oklahoma State (2002-04), Arkansas State (1999-01) and Tennessee-Martin (1998) and was the head coach at Memphis (2010-11).

In his first season at UNC, Porter was part of an offensive staff that set several school records and gained more than 5,000 yards of total offense. Rotating three running backs, the group produced 1,119 rushing yards and scored 11 TDs.

Porter developed two 1,000-yard rushers at LSU in Jacob Hester (2007) and Charles Scott (2008) and produced six NFL Draft selections (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday, Stevan Ridley). He coached 1,000-yard rushers for three straight seasons while at Oklahoma State. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards and 12 touchdowns. A year earlier, Tatum Bell earned first team All-Big 12 honors with 1,286 yards and 16 touchdowns. Morency was a third-round pick of the Houston Texans in 2005 and Bell was a second-round pick by the Denver Broncos in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Porter lettered for four years (1990-93) at Memphis, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education in 1996. He is a member of the Memphis Athletics M Club Hall of Fame. Porter and his wife, Sharmane, have three children; sons Brandon and Omari, and daughter, Olivia.management in 2014 and his master's degree in human resource development in 2017.

RHETT RODRIGUEZ

Quarterbacks
@Rhett_rod

Rodriguez comes to Morgantown from Jacksonville State, where he served as an offensive analyst for the 2024 season and helped lead the Gamecocks to the CUSA regular season and conference championships.

Rodriguez was a quarterback at Louisiana-Monroe, in the Sunbelt Conference, in 2021 and at Arizona, in the Pac-12 Conference, from 2017-20.

At ULM, he served as a team captain and was heavily involved in the weekly game planning as he assisted in breaking down opponent tendencies and analyzing film for the entire offensive unit. Aside from practically being another coach on the field, he completed 51% of his passes for the Warhawks, throwing for 799 yards and four touchdowns.

His teammates voted him as the offensive representative on the player leadership council to not only the head coach but to the athletic administration.

Rodriguez signed with Arizona after a stellar high school career at Catalina Foothills High School in Tucson. His best season with the Wildcats came in 2018 under Coach Kevin Sumlin. He completed 51.8% of his passes, throwing for 516 yards and three touchdowns. During his time as a quarterback at Arizona, he was heavily involved in Tucson community events and served as president of the school's Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

After his playing career ended, Rodriguez was a business associate for Northern Trust in Tempe, Arizona, in 2022-23, before making the career switch to collegiate coaching. At Northern Trust, he worked in the financial world developing exchange strategies and fund trading. He also conducted seminars with student-athletes on financial planning and strategies for the future.

He received his bachelor's in business administration from Arizona in 2020 and master's degree in 2021 from Arizona in entrepreneurship before adding a second master's degree in psychology from Louisiana-Monroe in July 2022.

ROD WEST

Cornerbacks
@CoachRodWest

Rod West is in his first season as the cornerbacks coach on the Mountaineer football staff.

He came to WVU from Appalachian State where he spent the last four years as the cornerbacks coach. He added the title of defensive passing game coordinator in 2022. During his time in Boone, he helped the Mountaineers win a pair of Sun Belt East titles and secure a win over No. 6 Texas A&M in 2022.

A fast riser in the coaching profession, West was named to the 2021 American Football Coaches Association 35 Under 35 list.

In 2024, the App State defense finished No. 13 in fourth-down defense, No. 27 nationally in fumble recovered and No. 35 in first down defense.

West had a pair of All-Sun Belt cornerbacks in 2023, as Tyrek Funderburk earned All-American Second-Team recognition by Action Network and also was an All-Sun Belt first-team performer. He finished with four interceptions, including two returns for touchdowns. Ethan Johnson, the other starting cornerback, was named All-Sun Belt Second-Team.

Under West in 2021, Steven Jones Jr. was an All-American first-team honoree at cornerback, and Shaun Jolly joined Jones as an All-Sun Belt first-team selection.

App State ranked in the top 15 nationally with 15 interceptions, as Jones tied for the FBS lead with five during the regular season, including three pick-sixes.

The following year, Jones also earned All-America honorable mention honors before receiving an invitation to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. App State newcomer Dexter Lawson Jr. had a team-high three interceptions before moving on to the CFL.

Before arriving in Boone, West spent the three previous three-plus seasons on staff at Richmond, including serving as co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach starting with the 2022 spring season.

In 2019, West served as the defensive pass game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, helping Richmond finish first in the CAA in passing defense at 194.8 yards per game. West spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as Richmond's dimes coach and was also the co-special teams coordinator in 2018. The Spiders' 2017 squad finished fifth in the CAA in passing defense at 197.7 yards per game.

West began his coaching career in 2009 at Kentucky Christian. He also had stints at Division II national runner-up Delta State (2010), Texas A&M-Commerce (2011-12) and Morehead State (2013-14).

He coached at Chattanooga from 2015-16, serving as the cornerbacks/dimes coach as well as recruiting coordinator.

A native of Selma, Alabama, West played at Alabama State from 2005-08 and was a two-year starting defensive back. He was a member of the Dean's List his final three years and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in English in 2009.

He and his wife, Marcie, were married in 2013. They have one daughter, Maya, and one son, Major. Marcie was a three-time All-American volleyball player at Florida and played in four NCAA Tournaments from 2004-07.

DEREK DRESSLER

Assistant Offensive Line Coach
@Coach_Dressler

Derek Dressler joined the WVU football staff as the assistant offensive line coach in January 2025.

He arrived from Jacksonville State where he served as the assistant offensive line coach. In his three seasons, the Gamecocks' offense had three all-conference linemen, the No. 5 FCS rushing offense in 2022 (251.0) and the No. 3 FBS rushing offense in 2023 (236.7) and 2024 (251.2).

Dressler played offensive line for Concord University from 2015-2018. During his career, he earned All-Mountain East Conference First Team as a senior and Second Team as a junior.

As a senior, he was named to the Don Hansen Football Gazette All-Region Third Team after starting all 11 games at center and not missing any of Concord's 684 offensive plays. He was a member of a Mountain Lion offense that averaged more than 27 points per game.

Prior to Jacksonville State, he had a brief stint at his alma mater as the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and tight ends run game coach.

Dressler also had stops at Bryant University as the interior offensive line coach, offensive graduate assistant and video coordinator, and at West Virgnia State University as a graduate assistant coach, head equipment manager and video coordinator before being promoted to defensive line coach in 2020.

He graduated with honors from Concord in December 2018 with a bachelor of science degree in recreation and tourism management, earned his master's degree in sport studies from West Virginia State University in May 2021 and a master of science in sport management from Jacksonville State in August 2023.

HENRY WEINREICH

Nickels/Sams
@CoachWeinreich

He comes to West Virginia from Oklahoma, where he worked with WVU defensive coordinator Zac Alley as a defensive analyst, focusing on the linebackers and safeties. Aside from game-day duties, he was responsible for opponent breakdowns and scouting reports. During his tenure, he helped mentor two All-SEC performers, including consensus All-American Danny Stutsman.

Prior to Oklahoma, Weinreich worked at Jacksonville State from 2020-23, serving as a graduate assistant before being promoted to defensive analyst, where he worked with the Gamecock linebackers. Aside from game-day duties, he was responsible for opponent breakdowns and scouting reports. During his tenure, he coached three all-conference performers.

Prior to Jax State, Weinreich was at West Georgia as a graduate assistant, working with the linebackers as well as the scout offensive and special teams units. He coached linebacker Korie Rogers, who was an honorable mention All-American.

Weinreich also turned in coaching stints on the defensive side of the ball at Rhodes College (2018-19) where he had two all-conference selections, and at Washington University (2017-18), coaching yet another all-conference performer.

Weinreich played college football at Rhodes as a linebacker and safety. He was a four-time all-academic athlete and part of the 2013 Southern Athletic Association championship team. He was a four-year special teams performer and a starter on defense as a senior, helping the Lynx to a 26-14 record during his career.

Weinreich received his bachelor's degree (2017) from Rhodes in chemistry, a master's degree from Jacksonville State in sports management (2021) and his MBA from Jax State in (2023).

MIKE JOSEPH

Assistant Athletics Director/ Head Coach for Strength and Conditioning

Mike Joseph has overseen the strength and conditioning unit at West Virginia since 2008, serving as the director until being named assistant athletics director in 2018 and assistant athletics director/head coach for football strength and conditioning in 2019.

Joseph has made it a priority to evolve the program in all areas, not only with strength and speed but also combining sport science and technology to develop a total elite athlete. He uses data analysis for measuring heart rate, movement, effort and sleep patterns as well as placing a high importance on recovery and nutrition. This has paid huge dividends in not only the physical makeup, but the mental side as well. The sports science allows the staff to monitor load management, external and internal stressors, and develop a routine to maximize performance and preparation. The goal is to develop a well-prepared athlete/team utilizing all resources.

He administers, coordinates, develops, implements and teaches strength and conditioning programs for all WVU student-athletes with an emphasis on the football program.

Joseph has coached 27 football players who earned All-America honors and more than 100 athletes who were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts in the NFL.

Joseph, who was presented with his Master Strength and Conditioning Coaching distinction in 2014, served for five years as the assistant strength coach at Notre Dame (2003-08), working with football and was responsible for the strength and conditioning programs for baseball, volleyball and softball prior to coming back to West Virginia.

Joseph worked with the head strength coach with football, assisted with workouts, testing, conditioning, speed and agility training and in-season and offseason training schedules on a daily basis. He also was responsible for developing and training the quarterbacks, tight ends, linebackers, fullbacks and injured players.

He also had the same responsibilities with baseball, volleyball and softball. He supervised and maintained facility and equipment and scheduling all student-athletes for the school's 27 sports.

He spent two years as an assistant strength coach at Eastern Michigan (2001-03) and as a graduate assistant at WVU (1999-2001). He also worked at Healthworks Fitness and Rehabilitation in Morgantown in the summer of 2001.

Prior to that, he was the strength and conditioning coach at Fairmont State (Aug. 1998 – May 1999), camp instructor at the Mountain State Speed and Strength Camp hosted by WVU from May 2000 until April 2001, a guest speaker and instructor at many camps and clinic and a classroom instructor and state director for the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

While at Fairmont State, Joseph was a four-year letterman and three-year captain on the football team from 1994-97. He was a three time first-team all-WVIAC selection and was named the WVIAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996.

A 1997 regional All-American, a Burger King Scholar Athlete and a WVIAC Scholar Athlete, Joseph was selected the vice president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and to the Fairmont State Student Council.

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree from Fairmont State in 1999 and received his master's degree in from West Virginia in physical education with an emphasis in sport movement and development. He is certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and the National Strength Coaches Association (NSCA).

He and his wife, Andre, have two sons, Quincy and Brolin.

PARKER WHITEMAN

Assistant Head Strength Coach
Director of Skill Development
@ParkerWhiteman

Parker Whiteman returns to WVU as the assistant head strength coach/director of skill development for the Mountaineer football program.

He reunites with football coach Rich Rodriguez, with whom he worked at four previous stops. In 2024, he was the head strength and conditioning coach at Jacksonville State and was part of Rodriguez's staffs at West Virginia, Michigan and Arizona.

Last season, the Gamecocks finished with a 9-5 record, won the Conference USA championship and earned a spot in a second straight bowl game.

Before last season, Whiteman served a five-year stint as the head of football strength and conditioning at Sam Houston, where the Bearkats were one of the most dominant programs in FCS. Prior to leading SHSU into FBS and Conference USA alongside the Gamecocks in 2023, the Bearkats produced four winning seasons, two conference titles and the FCS National Championship in 2020.

The Keyser, West Virginia, native spent 11 seasons with Rodriguez, beginning prior to the 2006 season when he was hired as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at WVU. After being part of two seasons that saw the Mountaineers go 21-4 with a Big East Championship and trips to the Gator and Fiesta Bowls, Whiteman made the move to Michigan to be Rodriguez's assistant strength and conditioning coach for three seasons.

He spent the 2011 season as a strength and conditioning coach at BARWIS Methods at Arizona before being named the Wildcats' director of skill development in 2012. He spent the next six seasons on Rodriguez's staff at UA, helping the Wildcats to five bowl games and a Pac-12 Division title.

Whiteman spent another brief stint at BARWIS Methods before joining the Bearkats prior to the 2019 season.

He played football at Shepherd University in Shepherdstown, West Virginia, where he earned his degree in physical education and health in 2004. He then received his master's in exercise science from McDaniel College in 2006.

He started his career as a strength coach at Velocity Sports Performance in 2004 and spent two seasons as a strength intern/coach for the Baltimore Ravens before joining Rodriguez's staff at WVU.

DUSTY RUTLEDGE

Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Chief of Staff

Dusty Rutledge returns to West Virginia University and rejoins Rich Rodriguez's staff as the senior associate athletics director/chief of staff for Mountaineer football.

Rutledge implements strategic planning and staffing for the football office and oversees the areas of recruiting, operations, scouting and office administrative staff. He also serves as one of football's liaisons to various units in the Athletics Department including senior administration, marketing, digital media, development, communications, creative and student-athlete enhancement.

Additionally, Rutledge directs the program's student employment program, provides budgetary discretion and assists Rodriguez and staff in promoting the brand of West Virginia football.

Rutledge comes to West Virginia from Jacksonville State, where he served as chief of staff for Rodriguez since 2021. Rutledge came to JSU from Louisiana-Monroe, where he also held the same position.

He has contributed to the growth and success of several collegiate programs during his long and distinguished career with stops at Ole Miss, Arizona, Michigan and a previous seven-year stint at West Virginia from 2001-07.

In between football positions, he spent time as facility manager and director of sales of Barwis Training Methods, which is a holistic athletic and neurological training facility in Michigan. Additionally, he worked with Indiana football from 1997-2000 and has vast experience coaching not only high school football, but at different levels of college football.

The ties between Rutledge and Rodriguez go back more than 35 years. Rutledge was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator under Rodriguez for three seasons at Division II Glenville State (1994-96), and was a part of the Pioneers' three West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) titles.

Originally from Rockford, Ohio, Rutledge graduated from Fairmont State in 1991 with a bachelor's degree and coached the offensive line for the Fighting Falcons from 1988-93. In three of his years at Fairmont, he also played and was a member of the active roster. To this day, he remains one of college football's last player-coaches.

CHUCK LILLIE

General Manager

Chuck Lillie is in his first year as the general manager for the Mountaineer football program.

He comes to West Virginia from Oklahoma, where he was the assistant general manager since April 2024. While there, he worked with current WVU assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Zac Alley and nickels/sams coach Henry Weinreich.

At WVU, Lillie is the lead negotiator on all player acquisition deals, and oversees the scouting and recruiting operation and roster management process, including high school, junior college and portal recruitment and player retainment.

At OU, Lillie oversaw roster management in conjunction with the head coach, overseeing the recruiting and scouting process for all players. He assisted the general manager and communicated with player representatives in negotiating NIL deals.

Lillie went to Oklahoma after spending the previous four seasons at Kansas State as the director of scouting. He was responsible for evaluation of prospects' film, hosting prospects and assisting in the recruiting operation efforts of the staff.

Prior to Kansas State, Lillie spent five years on Clemson's support staff, working four years in the program's recruiting department and one season as a defensive graduate student intern.

During his time as a defensive graduate assistant, Lillie assisted coaches with day-to-day preparations for practices, diagramed opponents' offensive plays, developed weekly opponent gameplans and assisted in the weekly breakdowns of Clemson's upcoming opponents.

Lillie also was a pro scouting intern with the New York Giants during the 2019 NFL preseason before returning to Clemson as a playoff analyst during that season, when the program finished as national runnerup.

A native of Baltimore, Lillie graduated from Clemson with a bachelor's degree in sports communications in 2017 and master's degree in athletic leadership in 2020.

COLE DIAL

Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Operations

Cole Dial is in his first year on the Mountaineer staff as the assistant athletics director for football operations.

Dial directs and oversees the daily operations of the football office, manages budgets and expenditures, works with the administration on capital projects, plans and administers travel and works with senior administration on all football issues including policy, personnel and scheduling.

He also provides administrative daily support to Rodriguez in the areas of practice planning and scheduling, fundraising, personal appearances and community involvement. He serves as the football liaison to all units of the Athletics Department.

He comes to West Virginia from Jacksonville State, where he spent the last three years in the same capacity as director of football operations for the Gamecocks. He was a key member of the management team in organizing, planning, overseeing and supervising all aspects of the football program.

Dial went to Jacksonville State after six seasons at Louisiana-Monroe, including the Warhawks' director of football operations his final two years and the previous four seasons as the director of recruiting and player personnel. He helped ULM sign the Sun Belt Conference's No. 1 recruiting class in 2017, according to Rivals.com.

Prior to joining ULM, Dial spent six years (2010-15) working with the football program at Syracuse. From 2010-12, he served as quality control for administrative support and special teams before moving into the role of operations and recruiting administrator in the fall of 2013. His recruiting efforts helped the Orange sign their highest-rated recruiting class in 15 years.

The Marietta, Georgia, native started his career in athletics as a coach at Walton High School in Marietta from 2008-10.

Dial received a bachelor's degree in sports management from Reinhardt University in 2010.

RAQUEL RODRIGUEZ

Assistant Athletics Director/ Football Management and Strategy

Raquel Rodriguez joined the Mountaineer Football staff in January 2025 as the assistant athletics director for football management and strategy.

She came to WVU after serving as the creative content coordinator for football at Jacksonville State in Jacksonville, Alabama, for three years. She was responsible for all football content, including photography, video and graphics production and managed all social media platforms. Rodriguez introduced a new helmet logo, which has become one of the Gamecock's primary logos, designed the new turf and uniforms, assisted with new Loring and Debbie White Football Complex designs and directed the gameday content strategy.

As a member of the football administrative team at WVU, she is responsible for collaborating and providing assistance with support staff, on-campus recruiting and campus partners.

Along with the chief of staff and the football operations unit, she manages the day-to-day operations and planning for the program.

Rodriguez is a liaison with the Athletics Department external units in marketing, communications, creative content and social media to further the effectiveness and efficiency of the brand and awareness for the football program.

Rodriguez brings a background in creative content, social media management, reporting and producing.

The Morgantown, West Virginia native graduated from Arizona in 2018 with a bachelor's degree in communications and a minor in sport management. She was a two-year captain of the Wildcats' cheerleading squad and administered the program's social media platforms.

RASHEED MARSHALL

Director of Player Relations

West Virginia University Sports Hall of Famer and Mountaineer Legend Society member Rasheed Marshall returned to WVU in March 2023 as the director of player relations for the football program.

The 2004 Big East Offensive Player of the Year and standout WVU quarterback executes the program's culture by having a daily presence at study hall, mandatory meals, weight room, training room and student-athlete activities.

Marshall has daily communication with the head coach regarding the pulse of the team and assists the head coach with the leadership council, player counseling meetings, educational meetings, leads the Big Brother program and develops the materials for the student-athletes. He is responsible for all roll calls, including team meetings and meals. He executes the onboarding for transfer student-athletes and coordinates the mental health education program for all student-athletes. He manages all player housing and is the liaison for financial aid and stipend checks for the student-athletes.

In addition, he supports the 5th Quarter program, including educational programming in the areas of character development, leadership development, real life, social responsibility and career development.

He also serves as the liaison to the sport psychologist, counseling center, campus/city law enforcement, student conduct, student life, drug and alcohol assistance, student-athlete development, campus recreation, housing, admissions and other student-related programs.

Marshall came to WVU after serving a personal trainer at Team Marshall Fitness in Pittsburgh, his hometown, since 2013. He was as a regional head quarterbacks coach at Sports International Academy and an on-air football analyst for ESPN+ and AT&T SportsNet since 2015.

Marshall was a member of the Mountaineer football program from 2001-05, including the final three years as the starting quarterback. Along with the Big East Offensive Player of the Year honors, he also was named the ECAC Player of the Year in 2004. His record as the starting quarterback was 24-12 and he helped WVU to four bowl game (2000 Music City, 2002 Continental, 2004 and 2005 Gator Bowl).

He finished his career with a Big East record 2,040 rushing yards and 24 touchdowns and passed for 5,558 yards and 44 touchdowns. His 68 touchdowns set the WVU career mark, and he was second in career rushing by a quarterback and in total offense and fourth in passing yards.

Marshall was a fifth-round pick by the NFL's San Francisco 49ers (2005) as a wide receiver. He was a member of the 49ers (2005), Pittsburgh Steelers (2007) and Los Angeles Rams (2007) and Columbus Destroyers of the Arena Football League (2007).

Marshall graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education with a certificate in strength and conditioning from West Virginia in 2005. He was inducted into the WVU Sports Hall of Fame and Mountaineer Legends Society in 2024.

DAN NEHLEN

Director of Football Equipment Operations

Dan Nehlen has been a member of the West Virginia Football staff since 1981, first as a student manager, then assistant equipment manager in 1986 and head equipment manager in 1988. He transitioned to the director of football equipment operations role in 2023.

The son of Hall of Fame and former Mountaineer coach Don Nehlen, he is responsible for maintaining and procuring all equipment and uniforms for the football program as well as overseeing the football student managers.

Nehlen also coordinates the extensive movement of equipment when West Virginia hits the road.

A native of Canton, Ohio, Nehlen received a bachelor's degree in physical education and safety in 1985 from West Virginia. He and his wife, Janie, have two children, Ryan and Danielle and three grandchildren. Ryan is an offensive analyst and special assistant to the head coach on the WVU Football staff.

DR. A.J. MONSEAU

Medical Director/Head Team Physician

A.J. Monseau, M.D., WVU Medicine Emergency Medicine and Sports Medicine physician, has been the head team physician and medical director for WVU Athletics since 2017.

In 2016, Dr. Monseau served as the team physician for WVU Men's Basketball. He also served as team physician for USA Wrestling at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Monseau leads the University's staff of team physicians and works in conjunction with the athletic training staff to provide healthcare to all student-athletes. This includes injury prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, education, and counseling.

Originally from the Northern Panhandle, Monseau received his medical degree from and completed his residency training at the WVU School of Medicine. He then completed fellowship training in primary care sports medicine at the University of Michigan School of Medicine. He returned to his alma mater after completing his fellowship in 2011.

Currently, Monseau is a professor in the WVU Department of Emergency Medicine. In addition to working as an attending physician in the J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital Emergency Department, he also sees sports medicine patients through WVU Medicine Orthopaedics. He is board certified in emergency medicine and primary care sports medicine.

Athletics have always been a part of Monseau's life. After completing a three-sport career at Wheeling Park High School, Monseau carried his love of sports through his undergraduate education, during which he competed on the West Liberty University (then West Liberty State College) wrestling team for his father, who is a National Wrestling Hall of Fame coach. Though he gave up competing when he began medical school, he made sure to choose a specialty that would allow him to remain connected to competitive sports.

MICHAEL POLASCIK

Assistant Athletics Director/Head Football Athletic Trainer

Michael Polascik joined the West Virginia University football coaching staff as the assistant athletics director/head athletic trainer for football in April 2025.

A native of Snellville, Georgia, Polascik came to WVU after serving as the director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer for football at Jacksonville State in Jacksonville, Alabama for four of the past five years. He also worked in athletic training at the Andrews Institute for a year.

At Jacksonville State, he was the sports medicine administration supervisor and responsible for the day-to-day operation of the athletic training unit. He was the physician liaison that coordinated with the Andrews Orthopedic team, was responsible for providing on-field evaluation for all football student-athletes, supervised the sports medicine staff and was in charge of the monthly continuing education program for the entire staff.

At WVU, Polascik manages all aspects of the athletic training unit for the football program. He coordinates the prevention, treatment, rehabilitation and management of athletic-related injuries for assigned student-athletes. Polascik administers emergency care and assists in making medical referrals and manages system of injury records on appropriate student-athletes. He also coordinates communication among parents, physicians, student-athletes, coaches, team dietitian as well as sports mental health professionals.

He also was an assistant athletic trainer at Jacksonville State (2017-19), football intern/assistant athletic trainer at Tennessee (2016-17), graduate assistant athletic trainer at Virginia Tech (2014-16), Georgia College & State Baseball (2014), Georgia Military College Football (2013), Alabama football intern (2013), Tattnall Square Academy Football (2012) and Atlanta Falcons Physical Therapy Center (2010-12).

Along with his certification in athletic training, Polascik also is certified in functional movement screen and blood flow restriction.

Polascik graduated with his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Georgia College and State University in 2014 and earned his master's degree in education from Virginia Tech in 2016.

JONATHAN BRAINARD

Director of Sportrs Nutrition - Football

Jonathan Brainard joined the Mountaineer Football staff as the director of sports nutrition in April 2025.

At West Virginia, Brainard develops and oversees the nutritional needs for the football student-athletes. He counsels individuals and groups on daily nutrition for performance and health. He researches the most recent scientific evidence and turns it into practical sports nutrition recommendations and tracks and documents the outcomes of nutrition services. He serves as a food and nutrition resource for the program, providing education and maintaining professional competency and skills required for practice.

Brainard also develops and counsels in hydration protocols, addresses nutritional challenges to performance, evaluates nutritional supplements, develops all menus and oversees fueling and refueling stations.

Brainard came to West Virginia after serving as a special forces' performance dietitian for KBR Inc., for the past year. He provided care and was the regiment dietitian for four battalions. He developed and implemented individual nutrition strategies for more than 500+ special operations personnel, enhancing recovery, mission readiness and performance under extreme circumstances. He also developed, designed and implemented comprehensive guidelines and strategies for fueling, hydration and recovery during travel and long work hours.

Prior to KBR Inc., he served as the vice president and director of nutrition for NU-U Food Company for two years, was the director of performance dietetics at Wyoming for six months, assistant director of sports nutrition at Tennessee for two years and was a performance nutrition intern at Georgia for a year.

Brainard is a certified registered dietitian, a certified specialist in sports dietetics and a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

The Terre Haute, Indiana native, graduated from Indiana State with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2016 and a master's degree in dietetics in 2018.

ZACH SEGER

Assistant Athletics Director/Student-Athlete Academic Services

Zach Seger has been of a member of West Virginia's Student-Athlete Academic Services staff, working with the Mountaineer football program since 2016. He started as an assistant academic coordinator for football before becoming an academic counselor in 2017. In 2019, Seger was promoted to assistant director for student-athlete academic service and to associate director of student-athlete academic services in 2022.

Seger oversees the day-to-day operations of the football academic unit. He provides academic support and guidance to football student-athletes, to help them succeed in the classroom, maintain eligibility and ultimately help them earn their degree.

He maintains accurate records and knowledge of student-athlete academic schedules to notify coaches regarding classes, tests, grades and study sessions. He also maintains constant communications with professors, advisors, and other on-campus units to ensure the success of our football student athletes.

Prior to being named assistant director, Seger was responsible for coordinating all tutoring and textbook distribution at the Reynolds Family Academic Center. He organized and implemented academic programs that ensures their growth in the classroom, in the community and on an individual level.

Serving as the assistant academic coordinator for football at WVU, he assisted with the organization and implementation of academic support programs and advised student-athletes in selecting area of study and organizing their individual schedules. He worked with at-risk student athletes, facilitated daily tutor schedules and monitored study hall.

The Windber, Pennsylvania, native graduated cum laude from West Virginia University in 2014 with a degree in sport management. He earned his master's degree in Higher Education Management from Pitt in 2016.

Game delayed 2 hours, 19 minutes due to lightning and rain

MORGANTOWN (AUG. 31, 2024)

No. 8/9 Penn State came to Morgantown for the first time in 32 years and left with a 34-12 victory over West Virginia.

One of WVU's most anticipated home openers in years saw a FOX national broadcast as well as the network's Big Noon Kickoff Show in town to start the season. A sellout crowd of 62,084 was treated to a competitive first half before a two hour and 19 minute rain and lightning delay to start the third quarter dampened the festivities.

After a scoreless first quarter, Penn State started the scoring at the 14:53 mark of the second, when quarterback Drew Allar connected on a 50-yard touchdown pass to receiver Harrison Wallace. The Nittany Lions opted to go for two, but the conversion failed, putting the score at 6-0.

The visitors went to the air again at the 9:46 mark as Allar connected with Kaytron Allen for a 20-yard touchdown reception and a 13-0 advantage.

West Virginia got on the scoreboard later in the second quarter, when kicker Michael Hayes II scored WVU's first points of the season on a 38-yard field goal. Hayes II lit the scoreboard again with just 37 seconds left before halftime as his 39-yard field goal closed the home team's deficit to 13-6.

However, the final 32 seconds of the second quarter proved to be a killer for the Mountaineers. The Nittany Lions marched 73 yards in three plays, highlighted by a 55-yard completion, before Allar's 18-yard touchdown pass to Wallace gave the visitors a 20-6 edge at the break.

Not all the fans returned for the third quarter after the lightning delay, and Penn State essentially put the game away on its first drive of the second half. Receiving the ball first, the Nittany Lions drove 78 yards in nine plays as Nicholas Singleton's 40-yard scoring run gave Penn State a 27-6 advantage for the only score in the quarter.

West Virginia's lone score in the second half came at the 12:49 mark of the fourth, when running back CJ Donaldson Jr., scored from 1-yard out to end a 10-play, 70-yard drive. When WVU's two-point conversion failed, the visitors led 27-12.

Penn State put an insurance score on the board with 9:00 left in the game. Backup quarterback Beau Pribula connected with tight end Tyler Warren for a 19-yard touchdown catch, giving the Nittany Lions four touchdown receptions in the game.

One last scoring chance for West Virginia ended at the 2:37 mark, when backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol was intercepted at the Penn State 30-yard line.

Allar passed for 216 yards and three scores to lead the Nittany Lion attack. Wallace hauled in 117 yards receiving and two scores, while Singleton rushed for 114 yards and one touchdown. The Penn State defense was led by Kevin Winston with 12 tackles.

West Virginia received 161 yards passing from Garrett Greene. Aside from the two field goals from Hayes, Josiah Trotter led the defense with 10 stops.

The Mountaineers turned in 85 yards rushing and 161 passing for 246 yards of total offense. Penn State was solid with 222 yards on the ground and 235 passing for 457 yards of offense.

The loss marked the fourth year in a row that West Virginia has dropped its season opener and second year in a row to Penn State.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 7, 2024)

West Virginia secured its first victory of the 2024 season with a convincing 49-14 win over UAlbany at Milan Puskar Stadium.

A strong ground game, mixed with a solid passing attack, paced the Mountaineer offense, which turned in two 100-yard rushers against the Great Danes.

CJ Donaldson Jr. led the way with 125 yards on 14 carries for an 8.9 yards per carry average and one touchdown. Teammate Jahiem White followed with 100 yards rushing on 10 carries for a 10.0 per carry average and one score.

It was White who got the scoring started for the Mountaineers with 9:34 remaining in the opening quarter. His 14-yard run was his first score of the season and gave WVU a 7-0 lead.

The margin was extended with 5:41 left in the quarter, when quarterback Garrett Greene connected with receiver Justin Robinson for a 12-yard scoring play.

Greene's second touchdown pass came early in the second quarter on a 39-yard connection to tight end Kole Taylor.

Trailing 21-0, UAlbany found its rhythm and quickly closed the gap with two straight scores. Quarterback Myles Burkett led an 87-yard drive that ended with Griffin Woodell's 7-yard run. Next, it was Burkett's 33-yard touchdown pass to Jacari Carter that pulled the Great Danes within 21-14 with 1:54 left in the first half.

However, West Virginia did not settle for running out the first-half clock and scored one more time before intermission on the dynamic legs of Greene, who scampered 40 yards for the score and a 14-point lead for the home team.

UAlbany received the first possession of the third quarter and drove 84 yards to the WVU 1-yard line, but the Mountaineer defense held on four plays to change the complexion of the game.

The Mountaineers went on to score twice in the quarter and once more in the fourth for 21 second-.0half points and 28 unanswered when you account for Greene's late score before the half.

After the defense held, the offense took over at the 1-yard line, and Greene marched the unit 99 yards for the first time since 2020, hitting Hudson Clement for a 10-yard touchdown reception and a 35-14 lead.

West Virginia took advantage of a 44-yard completion to receiver Jaden Bray to set up a 2-yard run from Donaldson, giving the Mountaineers a 42-14 lead heading to the fourth.

The scoring ended with 7:16 remaining, when backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol led a five-play, 87-yard drive, which he capped with a 12-yard touchdown run.

Aside from the two running backs, West Virginia got good offensive numbers from Greene who finished with 236 yards passing and accounted for four scores.

Burkett topped the Great Dane offense with 306 yards passing, while Seven McGee had four catches for 90 yards. Defensively, Dontae Lunan, Thomas Joe-Kamara and Ron Holmes combined for 31 of 59 tackles made by the unit.

West Virginia finished with 305 rushing yards and 248 passing for 553 offensive yards. UAlbany had 68 yards on the ground and 306 through the air for 374 total yards.

The win improved WVU to 22-0 vs. FCS teams.

PITTSBURGH, PA. (SEPT. 14, 2024)

Pitt erased a 10-point deficit in the final 4:54 to defeat West Virginia, 38-34, in the 107th renewal of the "Backyard Brawl."

The game lived up to its reputation as one of college football's best and fiercest rivalries as 66,087 fans at Acrisure Stadium were entertained in the back-and-forth affair with momentum changes throughout the game.

West Virginia struck first on its second possession as running back CJ Donaldson Jr., took a swing pass from quarterback Garrett Greene 10 yards for the score and a 7-0 lead.

Before the end of the first quarter, it was Pitt who had the lead behind a 31-yard Ben Sauls field goal and a 9-yard pass from quarterback Eli Holstein to Desmond Reid.

The Mountaineers opened the second quarter with a 75-yard drive and regained the lead on tailback Jahiem White's 5-yard run. White's run put the visitors on top 14-10 with 11:45 remaining in the first half.

Later in the second quarter, Holstein drove the Panthers 65 yards and found Reid again for a 19-yard touchdown pass and a 17-14 lead.

Just before halftime, the Mountaineers got a 44-yard field goal from Michael Hayes II to tie the contest at 17-17 at intermission.

Not only was the game tied, but the first half saw four lead changes, and the Panthers held a 222-194 advantage in total offense.

Pitt grabbed the momentum at the 8:27 mark of the third quarter by blocking an Oliver Straw punt and returning it 24 yards for a touchdown and a 24-17 advantage.

However, West Virginia quickly answered just 3:28 later with an 81-yard drive that saw Donaldson Jr. rush in from 4 yards out. The big play in the drive was a 44-yard completion from Greene to receiver Jaden Bray.

Just like halftime, the two rivals again were tied after three quarters, but West Virginia scored the first 10 points of the fourth for a 34-24 lead with only 4:54 remaining.

Hayes II kicked his second field goal of the game, as it was good from 23 yards. The Mountaineers marched 68 yards on their next possession and Greene finished it with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Justin Robinson.

As both teams did throughout the game, Pitt flipped the momentum one last time, and it carried the Panthers to victory. Holstein turned in a 23-yard run and then hit Daejon Reynolds for a 40-yard touchdown bomb to close the deficit to three.

After holding the Mountaineers to a three-and-out, the Panthers embarked on a 77-yard scoring drive in just 1:27 to win the game. The final points came from a Derrick Davis 1-yard rush to complete the comeback.

Greene finished with 49 yards rushing and 210 passing while throwing for two scores. Donaldson was strong with 79 yards rushing and scored a rushing and receiving touchdown.

Pitt got 301 yards passing and three touchdowns from Holstein, who also led the Panthers in rushing with 59 yards. Donovan McMillon, Kyle Louis and Rasheem Biles dominated the Pitt defense as the trio combined for 38 tackles.

Final numbers again showed how even the game was with WVU coming in at 398 total yards to Pitt's 379.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 21, 2024)

West Virginia erased an 11-point deficit in the final 5:39 to rally and defeat Kansas, 32-28, at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Quarterback Garrett Greene was a warrior in the final two drives of the fourth quarter and willed the Mountaineers to victory. Taking a beating while delivering big plays, Greene finished with 87 yards rushing and 295 passing, while accounting for three touchdowns in the victory.

West Virginia's first scoring drive saw Greene connect with receiver Hudson Clement for receptions of 38 and 39 yards, which set up running back Jahiem White's 1-yard run for a 7-0 lead.

The Jayhawks tied the game at 7-7 in the second quarter, when running back Devin Neal scored on an 11-yard scamper. The drive covered 83 yards in 13 plays and used 6:16 off the clock.

The Mountaineers started a drive with 1:42 left in the half and regained the lead when Greene rushed in from 5 yards out for a 14-7 advantage.

Kansas went on a 14-3 run to start the third quarter and took a 21-17 advantage into the fourth.

The Jayhawks got touchdowns from a Jalon Daniels 7-yard pass to receiver Luke Grimm and a Daniel Hishaw 11-yard run. Both drives covered 75 yards, while the Mountaineers countered with a 40-yard field goal from kicker Michael Hayes III.

After a one hour and 58 minute lightning delay, Kansas continued its second-half domination in the fourth when Grimm took an end around 32 yards for a touchdown with 5:39 left to play. With Grimm's score, the Jayhawks had outscored the Mountaineers 21-3 in the second half before Greene stepped in to take control.

Using a two-minute offense, Greene marched the Mountaineers 75 yards in 2:12, hitting tight end Kole Taylor for an 8-yard touchdown reception. In the scoring drive, Greene completed passes of 16 and 26 yards, and after a successful two-point conversion, WVU trailed 28-25 with 3:23 remaining.

Desperately needing a stop, the Mountaineers forced a punt, giving the ball back to the offense at its own 33-yard with 2:22 left.

A 10-yard run and a 13-yard run by Greene to go along with an 11-yard pass completion set up Greene's 15-yard touchdown pass to Rodney Gallagher III to complete the comeback. It was the first touchdown of Gallagher's Mountaineer career, and the West Virginia defense forced a Kansas fumble in the closing seconds to preseve WVU's first Big 12 victory of the season.

Aside from Greene's big numbers, Clement hauled in seven catches for 150 yards, including an impressive 47 yards after the catch. Defensively, Josiah Trotter and Trey Lathan combined for 21 tackles, but it was Tyrin Bradley Jr.'s numbers that earned him Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors. His seven tackles, sack, interception, forced fumble and fumble recovery topped all defensive performers.

Kansas got 110 rushing yards from Neal, 184 passing from Daniels and 130 all-purpose yards from Grimm to lead the visitors.

Final numbers showed that West Virginia dominated the passing game and Kansas took honors in the running game. WVU collected 148 yards rushing and 295 passing for 443 total yards. Kansas rushed for 247 and passed for 184 to total 431 yards of offense.

With the win, WVU leads the all-time series with Kansas by a 11-2 count.

STILLWATER, OKLA. (OCT. 5, 2024)

West Virginia used an explosive first half and a dominant rushing attack to upset Oklahoma State on the road in Stillwater by a 38-14 count.

It marked the second straight victory for Neal Brown's team at Boone Pickens Stadium and the win lifted West Virginia to 3-2 overall and 2-0 in the Big 12 Conference.

The Mountaineers rushed for 259 yards in the first half and exploded for 31 points, including 21 in the second quarter to defeat the Cowboys.

Running back Jahiem White led the ground game with 158 yards on 19 carries for an 8.3 average. White added a touchdown to his numbers and collected a long run of 26.

West Virginia jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, taking the game's opening possession 55 yards and getting a 39-yard field goal from kicker Michael Hayes II. The drive took 5:40 off the clock, which set the tone for the game as WVU dominated the time of possession.

On the next drive, filling in on the play for the injured Garrett Greene, backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol converted with Traylon Ray for a 10-yard scoring strike in the final minute for a 10-0 advantage.

Greene returned in the second quarter and led his offense to three scoring drives. The first came at the 11:16 mark on White's 10-yard rush, ending a 63-yard drive.

The WVU quarterback called his own number later in the quarter and scampered to a 15-yard touchdown run to cap an 87-yard drive.

Oklahoma State ended the 24-point WVU run at the 1:54 mark of the second quarter when quarterback Alan Bowman connected with Rashod Owens for an 8-yard scoring toss.

However, the Cowboys left Greene with 1:54 before halftime, and the senior quarterback made the most of the two-minute offense. Greene marched the Mountaineers 75 yards in 1:26, and the nine-play drive resulted in a 15-yard touchdown run by CJ Donaldson Jr., for a 31-7 WVU advantage.

OSU was held to 115 yards of total offense in the first half, while the visitors racked up 345 total yards.

The Mountaineers were in no hurry on offense in the second half and mainly focused on controlling the clock. Both teams had chances in the third, but the quarter went scoreless.

West Virginia busted through for its only points in the second half with 9:01 remaining. Donaldson scored his second touchdown in the game as he ended a 5:02 drive with a 1-yard run.

The Cowboys added a second-half score at the 8:30 mark of the fourth quarter, when backup quarterback Garret Rangel found receiver De'Zhaun Stribling for a 43-yard aerial scoring play to put the final score at 38-14.

West Virginia won the time of possession battle by a 42:40 to 17:14 count and basically kept the ball away from OSU star running back Ollie Gordon, who finished with just 50 yards rushing.

Adding to White's impressive rushing numbers for WVU, Greene played through injury to total 86 yards on the ground and 159 passing, while Donaldson added 77 yards rushing to go with his two touchdowns.

Final numbers saw West Virginia with a stout 389 yards rushing and 169 passing for 558 yards of offense in the dominating performance. Oklahoma State finished with 36 yards rushing and 191 passing for 227 total yards.

MORGANTOWN (OCT. 12, 2024)

The No. 11/13 Iowa State Cyclones stormed into Milan Puskar Stadium and earned a 28-16 victory over West Virginia in front of 55,202 fans and a FOX national audience.

The win spoiled the debut of West Virginia's black coal rush uniforms in which the Mountaineers honored the rich tradition of the coal mining industry in the state. Home fans were encouraged to wear black to match their team, but it was the white-clad uniforms of the visitors who rode out of town with the victory.

Things started well for West Virginia as the Mountaineers took the game's first possession 75 yards in 14 plays. After taking 7:42 off the clock, tailback Jahiem White's 8-yard run gave the home team a 7-0 lead.

Following a missed ISU field goal, the Mountaineers would get offensive again with a drive early in the second quarter, but kicker Michael Hayes II missed a 36-yard field goal, which seemed to open the door for the Cyclones. ISU promptly tied the game when quarterback Rocco Becht hit receiver Jaylin Noel for a 60-yard touchdown strike.

Iowa State broke the tie on its next possession with a 17-play, 91-yard drive that took 8:08 off the clock. Running back Carson Hansen bolted in from 11 yards out for a 14-7 lead.

Just before halftime, the Mountaineers closed their deficit when Hayes atoned for his earlier miss with a 43-yard field goal, putting the score at 14-10 in favor of the visitors.

Third-quarter action proved to be a defensive battle as neither team could score. West Virginia did march to the Iowa State 29-yard line, but a Garrett Greene interception ended the drive and seemed to be all the spark Iowa State needed.

Becht took advantage of the miscue by leading his offense on a 65-yard drive, which ended with a Hansen 3-yard run for a 21-10 ISU advantage.

A second interception gave the ball back to the Cyclones, who capitalized again off the WVU turnover. The third rushing touchdown of the night for Hansen gave the Cyclones a commanding 28-10 lead with 4:35 left to play.

Greene was not done though and connected on passes of 18, 21, 10 and 8 yards. His 10-yard throw to White gave the Mountaineers their second touchdown in the game.

After a failed two-point conversion, WVU trailed 28-16 and when its onside kick attempt failed, the Cyclones finished the game by running out the clock and capturing the big road win. West Virginia actually outrushed Iowa State as Greene collected 87 yards to go with his 206 passing. Josiah Trotter again topped the Mountaineer defensive effort with 12 total tackles.

Iowa State got 265 yards passing on 18-of-26 attempts from Becht. To go with his three touchdown runs, Hansen finished with 96 yards rushing. Jayden Higgins topped all receivers as he caught six Becht passes for 102 yards. The Cyclone defense was led by safety Malik Verdon with 10 tackles.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 148 yards rushing and 206 passing for 354 yards of total offense. Iowa State came in at 129 yards on the ground and 265 from the arm of Becht for 394 total yards.

Aside from honoring the coal miners of the state, WVU officially inducted former tight end great and All-Big East performer Anthony Becht into the WVU Sports Hall of Fame at the end of the first quarter.

MORGANTOWN (OCT. 19, 2024)

Kansas State used a 28-point second half to blow open a close game and defeat West Virginia, 45-18, at Milan Puskar Stadium in front of 54,327 fans and a FOX national television audience.

The two teams turned in a competitive first half as only a four-down stop by the Wildcats inside their 10-yard line kept the game from being tied at the half.

Midway through the first quarter, the two teams traded 44-yard field goals for a 3-3 tie. Kansas State's Chris Tennant ended a 37-yard drive, while West Virginia's Michael Hayes II's three-pointer capped a 49-yard drive.

Just before the end of the quarter, Kansas State grabbed a lead they would never relinquish. Quarterback Avery Johnson connected with receiver Jadon Jackson for a 24-yard pass completion followed by a 60-yard touchdown strike to Jackson for a 10-3 Wildcat advantage. The entire 84-yard scoring drive took just two plays and 26 seconds to put the visitors in front.

Kansas State would make life miserable early in the second quarter with a pick six of WVU quarterback Garrett Greene. Safety Marques Sigle stepped in front of a Greene pass and returned it 43 yards and a 17-3 lead.

The Mountaineers answered the interception with a 13-play, 70-yard drive that put new life into the stadium crowd. Greene's 7-yard pass to receiver Hudson Clement pulled the Mountaineers to 17-10 with 6:38 left in the first half.

West Virginia had one more chance to tie the game, but its 89-yard drive ended on downs at the K-State 3-yard line, putting the Wildcats up 17-10 at halftime.

Third-quarter action saw Kansas State take the opening drive 74 yards, while using 5:17 off the clock for a 24-10 advantage. Johnson connected through the air for a 16-yard touchdown to tight end Garrett Oakley for the score.

The Mountaineers were without three starters on offense to begin the third quarter as Greene, left tackle Wyatt Milum and running back Jahiem White all were ruled out with injuries.

The injuries showed as West Virginia could only muster 16 offensive yards in the quarter. Meanwhile, the Kansas State offensive machine was in full force and scored at the 4:42 mark, when Johnson threw his third touchdown pass with this 1-yard pass going to freshman tight end Will Anciaux.

K-State's string of unanswered points reached 21 in the fourth quarter with a DJ Giddens 1-yard run. WVU backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol stopped the scoring binge by leading a 69-yard drive and ending it with a 12-yard scoring pass to receiver Traylon Ray with 8:20 left.

However, a successful two-point conversion after the score would be the last points on the night for WVU, while Kansas State added one more touchdown with 5:46 remaining in the game. Giddens cashed in on an 18-yard scamper for his second score, putting the final number at 45-18.

Johnson finished his night with 298 yards passing on 19 completions and three touchdowns. The KSU defense was led by Austin Romaine with 12 tackles.

WVU's offensive numbers were hurt badly by the loss of the three starters. The Mountaineers finished with 152 yards rushing and 143 passing for 295 yards of offense. K-State rushed for 114 and passed for 298 to give them 412 yards on the night.

The win gave the Wildcats a three-game winning streak in the series.

TUCSON, ARIZ. (OCT. 26, 2024)

West Virginia built an 18-point fourth-quarter lead and then held off a furious Arizona comeback to defeat the Wildcats 31-26 at Arizona Stadium.

It was West Virginia's first trip to Tucson since 1998, when the Mountaineers played in the Insight.com Bowl. The Big 12 Conference game was 1,803 miles from Morgantown, but the Mountaineers overcame the mileage and injuries to several starters for the win.

Starting quarterback Garrett Greene and left tackle Wyatt Milum were missing, but backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol engineered an efficient offensive attack, managed the game and kept the Mountaineers away from turnovers to key the victory.

West Virginia came away with a Michael Hayes II 45-yard field goal on the game's opening possession. In an effort to limit Arizona's possessions, the offense took 6:51 off the clock in gaining the 3-0 lead.

Just before the end of the first quarter, WVU extended its advantage to 10-0 on trickery from its field goal unit. Holder Leighton Bechdel took the snap and motored 14 yards for the surprise score.

With 7:34 left in the first half, Arizona got on the board with a Quali Conley 1-yard touchdown run. However, West Virginia would take a 17-7 lead into the locker room at halftime, when Marchiol found receiver Hudson Clement on fourth down for a 3-yard score.

After holding Arizona on downs in the third quarter's first possession, West Virginia started the second half strong with an eight-play drive, ending with a 20-yard touchdown run from CJ Donaldson Jr. The scoring run came on fourth down and gave the Mountaineers a 24-7 lead early in the third.

The Arizona offense was starting to find its rhythm as the Wildcats got on the board again with 1:18 left in the third. Quarterback Noah Fifita hit tight end Sam Olsen for a 23-yard touchdown pass. After the ensuing PAT was missed, the Mountaineers led 24-13 into the fourth quarter.

The visitors thought they put the game away at the 13:31 mark as Marchiol connected with receiver Traylon Ray on a 54-yard scoring reception and a 31-13 advantage.

The touchdown to Ray proved to be the game-winner as the Arizona offense continued to find its groove. The Wildcats marched 75 yards, highlighted by a 34-yard touchdown completion to Tetairoa McMillan, to cut their deficit to 31-19 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

West Virginia punted the ball back to the Wildcats and six plays later the Mountaineers found themselves clinging to a 31-26 lead. A 49-yard completion to McMillan was a key play that led to a 3-yard scoring run for Fifita with 4:35 remaining.

It was quite evident that the Mountaineer offense could not give the ball back to the Wildcats. Converting two key third downs to move the chains and keep the clock running enabled WVU to hold on to the important road victory.

Marchiol completed 18-of-22 passes for 198 yards and two scores, while Jahiem White rushed for 92 yards to lead WVU. Arizona was paced by the 294 yards passing from Fifita with 202 yards going to McMillan.

Final numbers showed WVU with 203 yards rushing and 198 passing to total 401 yards of offense. Arizona came in at 78 yards on the ground and 308 through the air for 386 total yards. WVU possessed the ball 10 minutes more than Arizona, which kept the explosive Wildcat offense off the field.

CINCINNATI, OHIO (NOV. 9, 2024)

For the second straight game, West Virginia built a big second-half lead on the road and held on to claim a Big 12 victory with a 31-24 win at Cincinnati's historic Nippert Stadium.

Strong returns on special teams and two huge defensive touchdowns keyed the victory for the visitors as both units picked up a sputtering offense to lead WVU to its fifth win of the season.

After West Virginia took the opening drive down to the Bearcat 32-yard line and came away empty, Cincinnati struck first with a 13-play, 68-yard drive that saw running back Corey Kiner give the home team a 7-0 lead on his 2-yard touchdown run.

West Virginia got on the board in the second quarter to tie the game at 7-7, when defensive back Anthony Wilson Jr. intercepted Bearcat quarterback Brendan Sorsby for a 79-yard touchdown return.

The interception for a score ignited the Mountaineers, who went on to score the half's next 10 points to grab a 17-7 lead at the intermission.

A 24-yard Michael Hayes II field goal at the 8:40 mark gave the Mountaineers their first lead of the game and one they would not reliniquish. The field goal was set up by a WVU fumble recovery by KK Tarnue, which was forced by linebacker Reid Carrico.

A 29-yard punt return by Preston Fox set up the offense in Bearcat territory, and three plays later backup quarterback Nicco Marchiol hit receiver Justin Robinson for a 10-yard score, giving the visitors the 10-point cushion at the half.

WVU scored its 24th straight point with 8:29 left in the third quarter on Marchiol's 8-yard run. The big play in the 51-yard drive was a Marchiol 38-yard completion to Traylon Ray.

Cincinnati stopped the Mountaineer scoring run in a big way, when Sorsby went to the air for an 80-yard touchdown pass to receiver Evan Pryor. The one-play drive came after Marchiol was intercepted in the end zone, which would have given WVU a commanding lead. Instead, the touchdown bomb closed the Bearcat deficit to 24-14 heading to the fourth quarter.

Cincinnati had the momentum and used an 11-play, 71-yard drive on a tired Mountaineer defense to pull within 24-21 when Sorsby scored on a 12-yard touchdown run at the 9:35 mark.

After a WVU three-and-out, Cincinnati had the home crowd ignited and took possession of the ball with 7:16 left in the game.

Without a doubt, the West Virginia defense was on its heels, but found a way to make a play that secured the important conference road victory.

Linebacker Trey Lathan sacked Sorsby for a 13-yard loss while forcing a fumble that was recovered by spur Tyrin Bradley and returned 14 yards for West Virginia's second defensive score of the contest. The touchdown took the air out of the stadium and changed the momentum as the Mountaineers took a 31-21 advantage with 3:30 left.

The Bearcats added a 29-yard field goal with 35 seconds left, but the Mountaineers secured the ensuing onside kick to ensure the win.

Cincinnati dominated the statistics, but West Virginia won the turnover battle by scoring 17 points off Cincy miscues, which proved to be the difference. WVU ran for 92 yards and passed for 156 for 248 yards of offense. The Bearcats finished with 157 yards on the ground and a strong 279 yards passing for 436 total yards, while running 79 plays to WVU's 43.

The win was West Virginia's fourth straight over Cincinnati and second straight in the Big 12.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 16, 2024)

Baylor won for the first time in seven tries at Milan Puskar Stadium with a 49-35 victory over West Virginia.

The game was an offensive showdown in three of the four quarters, but it was Baylor who completed key offensive plays down the stretch, while coming up with the big stops on defense to claim its first-ever football victory in Morgantown.

The West Virginia offense set the tone on the game's opening possession with a 12-play, 79-yard drive to start the scoring. It was quarterback Garrett Greene, returning from a two-game injury absence, rushing in from 3 yards out for a 7-0 Mountaineer advantage.

The lead didn't last long as Baylor turned in the next two scores to take a 14-7 lead after one quarter of play. Quarterback Sawyer Robertson connected with running back Bryson Washington for a score before Robertson went deep for a 43-yard completion to receiver Josh Cameron, giving Baylor its first lead of the game.

Second-quarter action was fast and furious as the two teams combined for six touchdowns. The Mountaineers tied the game at 14-14 at the 13:04 mark, when Greene connected with receiver Traylon Ray for a 9-yard scoring toss.

The score remained tied until the 4:22 mark when the Bears regained the lead and never looked back. Robertson connected with Monaray Baldwin for a 40-yard touchdown reception, giving the Bears a 21-14 advantage and then five touchdowns in the final 4:00 of the half put the game at 35-28 at halftime.

Following Baldwin's score, Washington scored his second touchdown on a 51-yard run up the middle. CJ Donaldson Jr. matched the score for the home team with a 23-yard jaunt, putting the score at 28-21with 1:47 left in the half.

However, Baylor carved up the Mountaineer defense in just 55 seconds, as Washington collected his third touchdown with an 8-yard scamper with 47 seconds left. That proved to be too much time for Greene. The senior quarterback took his team 75 yards, highlighted by a 44-yard completion to receiver Hudson Clement and Greene's 20-yard run. He got into the end zone on a 1-yard rush, completing an exciting first half with the visitors holding a 35-28 margin.

After a 63-point first half, surprisingly, neither team scored in the third quarter with West Virginia failing to convert two key fourth downs in Baylor territory to hurt its cause.

Baylor took control of the game for good at the 8:07 mark of the fourth as Washington got touchdown number four on a 9-yard run. Running back Dawson Pendergrass got in on the action to close the scoring for the visitors with a 15-yard scoring run and a 49-28 Baylor advantage.

The Mountaineers did manage a late score for their only points of the second half, when Greene connected with tight end Kole Taylor for an 11-yard scoring reception, putting the final total at 49-35.

Baylor was impressive on offense as Washington scored four touchdowns and rushed for 123 yards. Robertson threw for 329 yards and three scores, and Cameron topped all receivers with 101 yards on five catches. For WVU, Greene accounted for 366 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, while linebacker Reid Carrico collected 16 tackles.

Final numbers in the offensive showdown showed Baylor with 512 total yards to West Virginia's 499. The all-time series now stands at 8-5 in favor of the Mountaineers.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 23, 2024)

West Virginia became bowl eligible with a 31-21 Big 12 victory over UCF at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The cold and wet weather of November was prominent in Morgantown, and the Mountaineers were able to use a blue-collar running game to manage the clock and gain victory number six.

Possessing the ball for 37:45, which totaled over 15 minutes more than UCF, the Mountaineers were able to keep the high-powered Knight offense off the field, proving to be key for the victory.

West Virginia started fast and took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, which then provided an uphill fight for UCF all afternoon. Quarterback Garrett Greene led a 68-yard drive that ended with a CJ Donaldson Jr., 1-yard touchdown run. Donaldson also contributed rushes of 20 and 31 yards in the drive to set up the score.

Before the end of the quarter, Mountaineer running back Jahiem White got in on the scoring action with a 3-yard run for a 14-0 West Virginia lead. The 66-yard drive took 6:21 off the clock and was highlighted by three third-down conversions by the efficient and methodical WVU offense.

However, UCF also had a strong running game, led by senior RJ Harvey. Despite having a 28-yard run in the first quarter, it was his second quarter dashes of 22 and 24 yards that put the Knights on the board at the 8:30 mark. Harvey's 2-yard touchdown run cut the Knights deficit to 14-7.

Just before the end of the half. West Virginia embarked on a 71-yard drive that saw Greene complete passes of 26 and 16 yards before hitting Rodney Gallagher III for a 12-yard scoring toss and a 21-7 advantage at the half.

The Gallagher touchdown was key as the Mountaineers got the ball first to start the third quarter and made the most of it with a 56-yard scoring drive that broke the game open. Donaldson scored his second touchdown on the day with a 1-yard run, giving the home team a 28-7 cushion.

By scoring on the last possession of the first half and then the first possession of the second half, West Virginia managed to keep the Knights in check the rest of the way, even though the visitors would not make it easy.

With 5:38 left in the third, Kobe Hudson hauled in a 45-yard touchdown pass from Dylan Rizk and the two teams headed to the fourth with a 28-14 score in favor of the Mountaineers.

West Virginia added a 35-yard insurance field goal by kicker Michael Hayes II with 12:15 left to play. The Knights then cut the lead on Harvey's 9-yard touchdown run that was sparked by UCF pass completions of 23 and 20 yards.

Leading 31-21 with 5:19 to play, UCF didn't get another chance as West Virginia's offense never gave the ball back. The Mountaineers ran out the clock with two huge fourth-down conversions. The last was a gutsy 18-yard completion from Greene to Hudson Clement, giving WVU a win in the home season finale.

Harvey took top offensive honors with 130 rushing yards and two scores for the Knights, but the day belonged to the WVU seniors, especially Greene who finished with 167 yards of total offense.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 200 yards rushing and 118 passing for 318 yards of total offense. The Knights countered with 176 yards rushing and 172 passing for 348 total yards.

The win gave West Virginia a 4-0 advantage in the all-time series with UCF, including a 2-0 mark in Big 12 play.

LUBBOCK, TEXAS (NOV. 30, 2024)

West Virginia closed the regular season in disappointing fashion by dropping a 52-15 decision at Texas Tech.

After a competitive first quarter that saw just a three-point deficit for the Mountaineers, the Red Raiders reeled off 29 second-quarter points not only to take command of the game, but put it out of reach for the visitors.

After West Virginia turned its opening drive over on downs, Texas Tech went to work with a 41-yard drive that saw kicker Gino Garcia convert on a 32-yard field goal.

The one first-half bright spot for West Virginia was that it was able to answer the field goal with one of its own. The Mountaineers took 4:41 off the clock and marched 41 yards to set up kicker Michael Hayes II for a 52-yard attempt. The successful field goal was a career long for the senior and tied the game at 3-3.

Just before the end of the quarter, Texas Tech regained the lead for good after an 80-yard drive set up Garcia's 23-yard field goal. Leading 6-3 going to the second quarter, the Red Raiders proceeded to break the game open.

Starting at the 10:32 mark, Texas Tech unleashed a 20-yard touchdown run from Tahj Brooks, a 1-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Behren Morton to receiver Mason Tharp, a 37-yard run from Brooks and a quarter-ending 2-yard touchdown run from Brooks. Drives of 59, 75. 53 and 35 yards allowed by the Mountaineer defense put the homestanding Red Raiders up 35-3.

It didn't help WVU's chances of a comeback when Texas Tech took the opening drive of the third quarter 75 yards and grabbed a 42-3 advantage on Morton's 31-yard touchdown strike to receiver Caleb Douglas.

West Virginia finally broke the 39 unanswered point run by Tech with 2:04 remaining in the third quarter. Quarterback Garrett Greene took the offense 91 yards and found Rodney Gallagher III for a 15-yard pass reception. When the two-point conversion failed, WVU went to the fourth quarter trailing 42-9.

The high-octane Red Raider offense was not through as it added 10 fourth-quarter points. Garcia connected on his third field goal in the game, and backup quarterback Will Hammond capped a 54-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown run. For West Virginia, running back Jahiem White finished his strong day with a 21-yard scamper, closing the scoring for the visitors.

Brooks is Tech's all-time leading rusher. In his final home game, he added a 188-yard rushing performance to his impressive tenure in Lubbock. Morton passed for a strong 359 yards and two scores, while receiver Josh Kelly turned in 150 yards receiving.

West Virginia was led by Greene with 265 yards passing, while White rushed for 124 yards. Trey Lathan led the WVU defense with 10 tackles.

The score may have been lopsided, but the final stats were competitive. West Virginia totaled 158 yards rushing and 265 passing for 423 total yards. Texas Tech countered with 210 yards on the ground and 359 through the air for 569 total yards.

The loss ended West Virginia's regular season at 6-6, while Texas Tech closed out an 8-4 campaign. With the win, Texas Tech broke a one-game losing streak in the series, which now stands even between the two schools at 7-7.

The contest marked the final game of Neal Brown's tenure as head coach of WVU football. Brown finished his West Virginia career with a 37-35 overall record.

FRISCO, TEXAS (DEC. 17, 2024)

Led by interim head coach Chad Scott, West Virginia played in one of the earlier bowls of the 2024 postseason and came up on the short end of a 42-37 decision to No. 25/23 Memphis in the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl.

Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter, West Virginia turned a potential bowl nightmare into one of the more entertaining games of the postseason by scoring 37 points in the last three quarters.

Quarterback Garrett Greene closed his Mountaineer career by passing for 328 yards and two scores, while accounting for 95 yards rushing and another touchdown on the ground. His 423 all-purpose yards, combined with 166 yards receiving from Hudson Clement, were almost enough to overcome a leaky Mountaineer defensive secondary.

The Tigers started quickly and took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on Mario Anderson's 4-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Seth Henigan.

Memphis scored its next 10 points early in the second quarter by taking advantage of a WVU fumble to add a 34-yard field goal from Tristan Vanderberg. Later in the quarter, a 46-yard run from Greg Desrosiers put UM up 17-0 with 10:26 left in the half.

But instead of a blowout, West Virginia's offense got on track led by Greene and Clement. The duo hooked up for a 33-yard scoring toss at the 7:28 mark.

The final 2:30 of the first half saw the two teams put up 21combined points, starting with a 42-yard Vanderberg field goal. Greene then used his legs for a 56-yard touchdown run for a WVU counter score.

The Mountaineer defense could not stop the Tigers from going 75 yards in less than a minute to take a 28-14 advantage on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Hennigan to Demere Blankumsee. However, as time expired, West Virginia kicker Michael Hayes II converted on a 46-yard field goal, putting the score at 28-17 in favor of Memphis at the half. Overall, the second quarter saw the two teams combine for 38 points.

Memphis took the opening possession of the third quarter 75 yards to extend the lead to 35-17 on Anderson's 3-yard run. West Virginia's only points came at the 7:15 mark when Greene connected with Clement for a 10-yard touchdown toss that pulled West Virginia to 35-23 heading to the fourth.

A combined 21-point fourth quarter meant that the game would go down to the final possession. The Mountaineers closed their deficit to five points with 12:02 left in the game, when CJ Donaldson Jr., scored from 1-yard out to end an impressive 90-yard drive.

But just when it seemed as if the Mountaineers had all the momentum, an 89-yard pass play from Henigan to Blankumsee set up a 1-yard Brandon Thomas score. In just two plays, the Tigers upped their lead to 42-30.

Greene put the offense on his back and engineered a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a second 1-yard run from Donaldson, which closed the game to 42-37 with 4:17 remaining.

A Memphis missed field goal gave the Mountaineers one last possession, but Elijah Herring's interception in the final seconds secured the victory for the Tigers.

Final numbers showed how entertaining the game was. West Virginia rushed for 206 yards and passed for 328 to total an impressive 534 yards of offense. Memphis countered with 180 yards rushing and 294 passing for 474 total yards.

WVU PRESIDENT
MICHAEL T. BENSON

Michael T. Benson, a veteran higher education administrator, became the 27th president of West Virginia University on July 15, 2025. He brings three decades of academic and administrative experience in higher education to his role leading West Virginia's flagship, land-grant, R1 institution into a new era.

WVU is Benson's fifth presidency. Prior to his arrival at Coastal Carolina in 2021, Benson led Snow College, Southern Utah University, and Eastern Kentucky University. During his tenure at Coastal Carolina, Benson secured a $10 million gift, the largest in the school's history. He worked closely with community partners and policymakers to advance initiatives there, including the successful renewal of a local option penny sales tax to support public and higher education through the year 2039, the only tax of its kind in all of South Carolina.

In 2024, under his leadership, Coastal Carolina enrolled its largest number of students ever - 11,225 - while also setting a record retention rate.

As the 14th president of Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, he helped raise more private money for the institution during his tenure than had been secured in the previous 115 years of the college's history combined.

Appointed at age 36, Benson was the youngest college president in the history of the Utah System of Higher Education.

Benson has also held faculty appointments at the University of Utah, the University of Notre Dame, and Johns Hopkins University, and has taught at each institution where he served as president, including Coastal Carolina where he was a professor of history.

His scholarly work has focused on the development of the research university and its impact on society. Benson's book, "Daniel Coit Gilman and the Birth of the American Research University," was released by Johns Hopkins University Press in 2022. He was a visiting professor in the Department of the History of Science and Technology at Johns Hopkins in 2020. Benson's biography of Gilman was named to the list of Best Higher Education Books of 2023 by Forbes magazine.

Benson is also the author of "Harry S. Truman and the Founding of Israel," and, with co-author Hal Boyd, published "College for the Commonwealth: A Case for Higher Education in American Democracy" with the University Press of Kentucky.

Nationally, Benson serves on the Council of Presidents of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. He also is the past board chair of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society and is the former chair of the NCAA Honors Committee.

Benson is sought after for public speeches and appearances. He was a featured contributor to the Huffington Post for 5 years; has written articles for The Jerusalem Post, Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier Journal, The Kansas City Star, Deseret News, and The Salt Lake Tribune, among others; and appeared on ESPN's The Paul Finebaum Show.

Born in Utah and raised in Texas and Indiana, Benson has worked and studied abroad for nearly 7 years in Italy, England, and Israel. He graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in political science and double minors in English and history from Brigham Young University in 1990. He completed his doctorate in modern history from the University of Oxford (St. Antony's College) in 1995, where he was a Rotary Foundation Scholar and recipient of the Oxford Graduate Overseas Fellowship.

He also earned a master's degree cum laude in nonprofit administration in 2011 from the University of Notre Dame Mendoza College of Business, where he was the recipient of the prestigious Father Theodore Hesburgh Founder's Award. Benson graduated with a Master of Liberal Arts from Johns Hopkins University in August 2021 and was elected to the Honor Society of the Association of Graduate Liberal Studies Programs.

An accomplished athlete, President Benson played basketball at BYU and Oxford, and his best marathon time – 2 hours and 41 minutes – won his age division in the St. George (Utah) Marathon. He also finished among the top 25% of all runners in the 1984 Boston Marathon, one of only 19 teenagers from around the world to compete in the race.

An avid traveler, he has visited all 50 states and five of the seven continents.

He and his wife, Debi, are the parents of three children – Truman, Tatum, and Talmage. He also has two older children from a previous marriage. Emma is a TV reporter for KSL in Salt Lake City, Utah, and Samuel writes for Politico in Washington, D.C. Sam's wife, Keylla, is in her first year at Georgetown Law School.

WVU VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

WREN BAKER

Wren Baker has changed the face of West Virginia University Athletics. He has reenergized the department and set it up for long-term success in the ever-changing world of college athletics. Whether it's coaching searches, facility master plans, revenue sharing or a modern, business-like approach to Name, Image and Likeness, Baker has faced every challenge head on and has never looked back. He has brought new thinking and confidence to WVU Athletics, and his reputation across the country is second-to-none.

Baker is a high-energy leader, and Mountaineer success has been contagious in competition and in the classroom. Conference championships, NCAA appearances and a national championship have been followed by strong academic achievement for Mountaineer student-athletes, eclipsing previous department GPA highs. Under Baker, WVU has also turned in record fundraising numbers as his forward thinking and strategic planning are geared to bringing future success and revenue stability to the state's Land-Grant Institution.

Baker was an instant hit with WVU fans. In his first year in Morgantown, he traveled the state to learn its culture, geography, and history. He has met and listened to Mountaineer fans from all over the world and immersed himself on what it means to be a proud West Virginian. The results of his approach and work ethic speak volumes as the West Virginia Mountaineers continue to be a national brand.

Despite accomplishing so much in a short period of time, Baker's plate is still full. Continued revenue generation, launching an NIL full-service business agency for student-athlete advancement and premium seating options in his two major sports venues are still on his radar for the coming year. His endless energy never stops moving WVU forward.

Then WVU President E. Gordon Gee named Baker as WVU's vice president and director of intercollegiate athletics on Nov. 30, 2022. He has oversight of 18 varsity sports, a department budget of more than $90 million, approximately 250 employees and nearly 500 student-athletes.

Baker is WVU's 13th director of athletics and came to Morgantown from the University of North Texas, where he had been the associate vice president and athletics director since 2016. With previous stops at Missouri, Memphis, Northwest Missouri and Rogers State, he brought more than 20 years of experience to WVU.

At North Texas, seven Mean Green programs combined to win 17 conference or division championships during Baker's tenure. UNT also reached new heights in the classroom under Baker's leadership, posting its top APR scores and four consecutive department Graduation Success Rate (GSR) records. Baker led record fundraising years at North Texas, and the overall top five largest gifts ever at UNT came under Baker's leadership.

Prior to North Texas, Baker was the deputy director of athletics at Missouri from 2015 to 2016, serving as the top advisor and chief of staff.

Before Missouri, he spent time at Memphis from 2013-15 as deputy athletics director.

From 2011-13, Baker was athletics director at NCAA Division II power Northwest Missouri State. From 2006-11, Baker served as the first athletics director at Rogers State in Claremore, Oklahoma, where he was also the school's first men's basketball coach. His team went 20-11 in his only season at the helm, and during his tenure, he developed a full-scale, competitive collegiate athletics program. In 2005, he was the principal and athletics director for Valliant Public Schools, and at age 26, was the youngest principal in Oklahoma history.

Originally from Valliant, Oklahoma, Baker earned his bachelor's degree in education from Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2001 where he was a member of the honors program. He went on to earn his master's degree in education leadership from Oklahoma State in 2003.

While at Oklahoma State, Baker was a graduate assistant and basketball operations assistant for the Cowboys' men's basketball program under legendary head coach Eddie Sutton. During his time with OSU, the Cowboys posted a 102-30 record, reaching four NCAA tournaments with trips to the 2004 Final Four and the 2005 Sweet 16.

Baker and his wife, Heather, a Bokchito, Oklahoma, native, have two daughters, Addisyn and Reagan.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Following are some guidelines for covering the 2025 Mountaineers.

Credentials: All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to cover West Virginia's 2025 home football games must be applied for online at http://www.sportssystems.com/westvirginia at least two weeks prior to the game. Requests submitted the week of the game only will be honored if space permits.

Due to the demand for working credentials, media regularly assigned to cover WVU and the visiting school will receive priority.

All photographers must work outside the 20-yard lines as prescribed by the NCAA; they are not permitted in the bench area extended. Photographers must sign in for field access in the press box prior to each game.

No children (under the age of 16) are allowed on the sidelines during the game for any reason; any children on the sidelines will be removed, along with their guardians.

Any abuse of a working credential to West Virginia football games can result in the media agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of 2025 and possibly the entire 2026 home season.

After The Game: Coach Rich Rodriguez will conduct a postgame news conference in the Milan Puskar Center Team Room. Rodriguez's news conference also can be heard over the press box PA. Select WVU players also will be available in the team room. No media will be granted access to the West Virginia locker room.

During The Week: Coach Rich Rodriguez will meet with the media each Tuesday afternoon at noon in the Team Room at the Puskar Center. Mountaineer coordinators and select players will be available for interviews each Tuesday from 12:30 – 2 p.m. This is also the best time for players to return calls to out-of-town media. They will be available to return phone calls on Tuesday and Wednesday as class and practice schedules permit. Any special arrangements for player interviews should be made through assistant athletics director/ football communications Mike Montoro at least a day in advance. Players will not be asked to miss class or study hall for interviews and at no time will a player's phone number be given to the media. No player interviews will be conducted during practice sessions. The practice and interview schedule for preseason camp and game weeks will be announced in August.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS PARKING AREA (RED AND BROWN LOTS)

From I-79: Take the Star City/WVU exit. Cross the Star City Bridge and proceed up Monongahela Boulevard toward the Coliseum. At the Coliseum traffic light, turn left onto Patteson Drive. At the third traffic light, turn right onto University Avenue. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left toward the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red Media parking area. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.

From I-68: Take the Pierpont Road exit and follow signs to the stadium. At the second traffic light off the interstate, turn left and travel up Easton Hill. Count two more traffic lights and take the roundabout second exit to the right and turn right on Route 705 and stay on this highway as it becomes Chestnut Ridge Road. Turn left at the sixth traffic light onto Van Voorhis Road, and make another left at the second traffic light onto University Ave. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left toward the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red Media area. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.

HOLD THE ROPE

WE WILL NOT LET GO OF THE ROPE. EVEN IF OUR KNEES ARE SHAKING, OUR HANDS ARE BLEEDING AND WE'RE BEYOND TIRED, WE WILL NOT LET GO OF THE ROPE.

SPOT THE BALL

AN ATTITUDE AND APPROACH TO THE GAME THAT CHARACTERIZES THE TEAM ON OFFENSE, DEFENSE AND SPECIAL TEAMS. WHEN THEY PUT THE BALL DOWN, WE'RE READY TO GET GOING – IT'S TIME TO GET AFTER IT.
